AN ACT to amend the banking law, in relation to assessment of the record of performance of banking institutions in helping to meet the credit needs of local communities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The opening paragraph of paragraph (a) of subdivision 3 of section 28-b of the banking law, as amended by chapter 227 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

4 When taking any action on an application or notice made by a banking 5 institution under (i) section one hundred five, two hundred twenty-four, two hundred forty, or three hundred ninety-six of this chapter for a б 7 branch office, (ii) section one hundred ninety-one of this chapter for a 8 public accommodation office, (iii) section six hundred one-b of this 9 chapter for approval of a merger or purchase of assets, or (iv) under 10 section one hundred five-a, two hundred forty-a or three hundred nine-11 ty-six-a of this chapter for the use or installation of an automated 12 teller machine, point-of-sale terminal or similar electronic facility or 13 on any other application or notice to which the superintendent of finan-14 cial services shall by rule or regulation make applicable the provisions 15 of this section, the superintendent shall take into account, among other 16 factors, an assessment, in writing, of the record of performance of the banking institution in helping to meet the credit needs of its entire 17 community, including low and moderate-income neighborhoods, consistent 18 19 with safe and sound operation of the banking institution. Such assess-20 ment shall include a separate discussion of the record of the banking 21 institution pertaining to each of the assessment factors listed in all 22 of the subparagraphs of this paragraph and a complete explanation of how 23 each of these factors was considered by the department in making the 24 assessment. This explanation shall include, but not be limited to, annu-
