AN ACT to amend the multiple dwelling law, in relation to providing tenant protection in connection with unlawful interim multiple dwellings

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The multiple dwelling law is amended by adding a new 2 section 286-a to read as follows:

3 § 286-a. Tenant protection; unlawful interim multiple dwellings. 1.
4 Definitions. For purposes of this section: (i) the term "building"
5 includes a building, structure, or portion thereof, or a unit therein;
6 (ii) the term "public body" includes state and municipal agencies,
7 departments, and boards, including local planning agencies and the loft 8 board; and (iii) the term "specified grounds" includes the ground that 9 (A) the building or occupancy does not satisfy one or more requirements 10 pertaining to interim multiple dwellings as set forth in this article or 11 in any other provision of law or in regulation, (B) the owner has failed 12 to satisfy one or more requirements pertaining to interim multiple 13 dwellings as set forth in this article or in any other provision of law
14 or in regulation, (C) a residential certificate of occupancy has not 15 been issued for the building, or (D) residential occupancy is not 16 permitted by the local zoning resolution.

17 2. Rule. An owner who has recovered possession of a building occupied 18 by a residential occupant on the basis that the occupancy is unlawful on 19 specified grounds shall not make any application under any provision of 20 state law or local law, code, ordinance, rule or regulation, to any 21 public body for the purpose of, or that would have the effect of or aid 22 in, legalizing or authorizing, any use of the building as an interim 23 multiple dwelling. The prohibition set forth in this subdivision shall 24 remain in effect for a period of ten years after the owner's actual

1 recovery of possession. Any approval, authorization, permit, special
2 permit, exception, exemption, certification, variance, zoning amendment,
3 or any form of permission whatsoever that may be granted or issued by a 4 public body in connection with an application made in violation of the 5 provisions of this subdivision shall be void.

6 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately, and shall apply to build-7 ing owners who recover possession of a building as defined and described 8 in section 286-a of the multiple dwelling law, as added by section one 9 of this act on or after said date.
