AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to mercantile establishments and the defense of lawful detention

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 218 of the general business law, as amended by chapter 374 of the laws of 1994, is amended to read as follows:

2 § 218. 1. Defense of lawful detention. In any action for false arrest, false imprisonment, unlawful detention, defamation of character, assault, trespass, or invasion of civil rights, brought by any person by reason of having been detained on or in the immediate vicinity of the premises of (a) a retail mercantile establishment for the purpose of investigation or questioning as to criminal possession of an anti-secur-9 ity item as defined in section 170.47 of the penal law or as to the 10 ownership of any merchandise, or (b) a motion picture theater for the 11 purposes of investigation or questioning as to the unauthorized operation of a recording device in a motion picture theater, it shall be a 13 defense to such action that the person was detained in a reasonable 14 manner and for not more than a reasonable time to permit such investigation or questioning by a peace officer acting pursuant to his or her special duties, police officer or by the owner of the retail mercantile 16 establishment or motion picture theater, his or her authorized employee 17 or agent, and that such officer, owner, employee or agent had reasonable 18 19 grounds to believe that the person so detained was guilty of criminal 20 possession of an anti-security item as defined in section 170.47 of the 21 penal law or was committing or attempting to commit larceny on such premises of such merchandise or was engaged in the unauthorized opera-23 tion of a recording device in a motion picture theater.

EXPLANATION -- Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
