AN ACT to amend the private housing finance law, in relation to affordable housing for persons with disabilities and those having attained the age of sixty-two

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 7 of section 45-b of the private housing finance law is amended by adding a new paragraph (i) to read as follows:

(i) Establish a disabled and elderly accessory apartment loan program, loans issued for which purpose shall be subject to the following parameters:

(i) proceeds of loans shall be used to construct an additional dwelling unit of up to two bedrooms within a structure, or to improve, renovate, or rehabilitate not more than one dwelling unit of up to two bedrooms located in a structure that, at the time of the loan application, contains a total of not more than two dwelling units; each dwelling unit may not be less than four hundred fifty square feet of gross living area;

(ii) at least one dwelling unit within the structure shall be owner-occupied, and, following completion of the project, at least one dwelling unit within the structure shall be occupied by a household that includes one person with a disability or one person having attained the age of sixty-two, either of whom may be related to the borrower;

(iii) loans shall be limited to the less of fifty percent of the financing of the total development costs or fifty thousand dollars;

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 (iv) loans shall not be issued unless a contract or agreement for the 2 use of the property for the purposes of such housing provides for the 3 recording of a restriction in the registry of deeds maintained by the 4 clerk of the county in which the affected real property is located, for 5 the benefit of said corporation, running with the land, that the land be 6 used for the purpose of providing alternative forms of rental and owner-
7 ship housing. Such property shall not be released from such restriction
8 until the balance of the principal and interest for any such loan shall 9 be repaid in full or until a mortgage foreclosure deed shall be 10 recorded;

11 (v) loans shall be issued for a term of up to thirty years which time
12 repayment may be deferred by the loan issuing authority. At maturity, 13 the corporation may extend a loan for an additional period of up to ten 14 years. Thereafter, as long as the housing continues to comply with the 15 requirements set forth in the loan documents, additional ten-year exten-
16 sions may be approved.

17 (vi) interest rates for loans shall be fixed at a rate to be deter-
18 mined by the director of housing and community development, in consulta-
19 tion with the state treasurer;

20 (vii) expenditures from this paragraph shall not be made for the 21 purpose of refinancing outstanding mortgage loans for housing in exist-
22 ence prior to the effective date of this paragraph;

23 (viii) the corporation shall take due consideration of a balanced
24 geographic plan for such alternative forms of housing when issuing such 25 loans;

26 (ix) at least one half of the beneficiaries of the loan program
27 created by this paragraph shall be persons whose income is less than 28 eighty percent of the area-wide median income as determined from time to 29 time by the United States department of housing and urban development; 30 and

31 (x) the corporation shall promulgate rules and regulations for the 32 implementation of the loan program created by this paragraph.

33 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
