AN ACT to amend the public service law and the general business law, in relation to consumer protections against cramming

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The opening paragraph of section 92-d of the public service 1 2 law, as separately amended by chapters 546 and 547 of the laws of 2000, is amended to read as follows: 3 4 Each local exchange telephone company shall inform its customers of 5 the provisions of section ninety-two-i of this article, sections three 6 hundred ninety-nine-p [and], three hundred ninety-nine-z and three 7 hundred ninety-nine-pp of the general business law, and article ten-B of the personal property law, as such provisions relate to the rights of 8 9 consumers with respect to cramming, telemarketers, sellers, the no tele-10 marketing sales call statewide registry and automatic dialing-announcing 11 devices, by means of: 12 § 2. The public service law is amended by adding a new section 92-i to 13 read as follows: 14 § 92-i. Cramming prohibited. 1. For the purposes of this section, "cramming" means the inclusion and imposition of charges on the invoice 15 16 or bill of a customer from a telephone corporation at the request of a 17 third party or billing aggregator that (a) were not authorized by the 18 customer, or (b) if authorized, were obtained through misleading or 19 deceptive means. 20 2. A customer shall not be liable for charges appearing on the invoice 21 or bill of a telephone corporation that are the result of cramming. No 22 charges for any products or services, other than those provided by the 23 telephone corporation, its affiliates, a third party video provider with

2	or otherwise permitted by law, shall be included on any bill or invoice
3	of a customer, unless the third party requesting the payment of such charges retains and provides upon request valid proof that:
4	(a) the customer was provided with clear and conspicuous disclosure of
5	all material terms and conditions of the product or service being
7	offered, including but not limited to all initial and recurring charges
8	and the fact that such charges shall appear on the customer's telephone
9	bill;
10	(b) after receiving clear and conspicuous disclosure as provided in 11	paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the customer explicitly consented to 12	the nature and amount of such charges; and
13	(c) the third party offering the product or service or an agent of
14	such third party provided the customer with a toll-free telephone number
15	the customer may call and an address to which the customer may write to
16	resolve any billing dispute.
17	3. Any charges for third party products or services that are included
18	on a bill or invoice by a telephone corporation without the consent of 19	the customer having been obtained as provided in subdivision two of this 20	section shall be void and unenforceable, and shall be removed from the
21	bill or invoice upon notice from such customer.
22	4. The commission shall supervise and ensure compliance with the 23	provisions of this section, and may promulgate any rules and regulations
24	it deems necessary or desirable to ensure such compliance, including but
25	not limited to any additional requirements for verification of customer
26	orders and any additional standards that third parties or agents must
27	meet to be authorized to receive payment through the inclusion of charg-
28	es on bills or invoices of telephone corporations. Any failure by a
29	telephone corporation to comply with the provisions of this section may
30	be redressed as provided in subdivision three of section ninety-six of
31	this article or as otherwise authorized by law.
32	§ 3. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 390-
33	bb to read as follows:
34	§ 390-bb. Cramming prohibited. 1. For the purposes of this section,
35	"cramming" means the inclusion and imposition of charges on the invoice
36	or bill for telephone service to a customer from a cable television
37	company, as defined in section two hundred twelve of the public service
38	law, that provides telephone service to customers in New York, at the
39	request of a third party or billing aggregator that (a) were not author-
40	ized by the customer, or (b) if authorized, were obtained through
41	misleading or deceptive means.

(b) after receiving clear and conspicuous disclosure as provided in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the customer explicitly consented to the nature and amount of such charges; and (c) the third party offering the product or service or an agent of such third party provided the customer with a toll-free telephone number the customer may call and an address to which the customer may write to resolve any billing dispute. 3. Any charges for third party products or services that are included on a bill or invoice for telephone service by a cable television company without the consent of the customer having been obtained as provided in subdivision two of this section shall be void and unenforceable, and shall be removed from the bill or invoice upon notice from such custom-

14 Subdivision 1 of section 227-a of the public service law, as S 4. 15 added by chapter 83 of the laws of 1995, is amended to read as follows: 16 1. Every cable television company, and all officers, agents and 17 employees of any cable television company shall obey, observe and comply 18 with every order, direction or requirement made by the commission, under authority of this article, so long as the same shall be and remain in 19 20 force. Except as provided in subdivision two of this section, any cable 21 television company which shall violate any provision of this article or section three hundred ninety-bb of the general business law, or which 22 fails, omits or neglects to obey, observe or comply with any order or 23 any direction or requirement of the commission, shall forfeit to the 24 25 people of the state of New York a sum to be set by the commission not to 26 exceed one thousand dollars for each and every offense; every violation 27 of any such order or direction or requirement, or of this article or section three hundred ninety-bb of the general business law, shall be a 28 separate and distinct offense, and, in case of a continuing violation, 29 30 every day's continuance thereof shall be a separate and distinct 31 offense.

32 § 5. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 33 it shall have become a law.
