IN ASSEMBLY

January 5, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. PERRY -- read once and referred to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to specifying conditions for the payment of wages to employees by direct deposit to a payroll debit card

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 192 of the labor law, as amended by chapter 301 of the laws of 1974, subdivision 1 as added by chapter 475 of the laws of 1981 and renumbered by chapter 170 of the laws of 1994 and subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 304 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read as follows:

§ 192. [~~Cash—payment~~] Payment of wages. 1. Except as provided in subdivisions two and four of this section, payment of wages shall be in lawful money of the United States or with checks drawn on financial institutions where suitable arrangements are made for the cashing of such checks by employees without difficulty and for the full amount for which they were drawn.

2. No employer shall without the advance written consent of any employee directly pay or deposit the net wage or salary of such employee in a bank or other financial institution.

[~~2-~~] An employer may arrange with a financial institution or financial institutions to pay the wages of an employee by direct deposit, provided that all of the following conditions are met:

(a) the employee shall first consent in writing to the direct deposit of his or her wages;

(b) the employee's consent as provided in paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall be obtained by the employer without intimidation, coercion, or fear of discharge or reprisal for refusal to accept the direct deposit arrangement;

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [~~-~~] is old law to be omitted.

LBD06345-01-7

1 (c) the employee's consent as provided in paragraph (a) of this subdivi-
2 vision shall not be a condition of hire or continued employment;

3 (d) the employee's wages so deposited shall be subject to withdrawal
4 and other disposition by the employee to the same extent and in the same
5 manner as if such deposit had been made directly by the employee;

6 (e) the employee shall be furnished with a statement of deductions
7 made from his or her wages for each pay period such deductions were
8 made; and

9 (f) the employee shall, on timely notice to the employer, be permitted
10 by the employer to elect not to have his or her wages deposited in the
11 manner prescribed in this subdivision and to be paid his or her wages
12 directly or as provided in subdivision four of this section.

13 3. When an employee with direct deposit has his or her account debited
14 with a check-deposit-return fee with regard to the direct deposit of his 15 or her wages, the employer shall reimburse the employee as soon as 16 possible, but no later than the next regularly scheduled payday.
17 Reimbursement by the employer shall be for the full amount of the check-
18 deposit-return fee and shall not be paid to the employee as wages.

19 4. No employer shall without the advance written consent of any 20 employee directly pay or deposit the net wage or salary of such employee
21 by causing the amount of such employee's wages to be deposited in a
22 payroll debit card account. An employer may pay the wages of an employ-
23 ee by causing the amount of such employee's wages to be deposited in a
24 payroll debit card account, provided that all of the following condi-
25 tions are met:

26 (a) the employee shall first consent in writing to the deposit of his 27 or her wages in a payroll debit card account;

28 (b) the employee's consent as provided in paragraph (a) of this subdivi-
29 vision shall be obtained by the employer without intimidation, coercion,
30 or fear of discharge or reprisal for refusal to accept the payroll debit
31 card account deposit arrangement;

32 (c) the employee's consent as provided in paragraph (a) of this subdivi-
33 vision shall not be a condition of hire or continued employment;

34 (d) the employee's wages so deposited in a payroll debit card account
35 shall be subject to withdrawal and other disposition by the employee to 36 the same extent and in the same manner as if such deposit had been made 37 directly by the employee into an account maintained in a financial 38 institution in the name of the employee;

39 (e) on at least one occasion per pay period, the employee shall be 40 permitted, using the payroll debit card, to withdraw his or her wages in 41 full, in lawful money of the United States, without any fee to the 42 employee and without difficulty;

43 (f) the employee shall be furnished with a statement of deductions
44 made from his or her wages for each pay period such deductions were
45 made; and

46 (g) the employee shall, on timely notice to the employer, be permitted
47 by the employer to elect not to have his or her wages deposited in the
48 manner prescribed in this subdivision and to be paid his or her wages
49 directly or in the manner provided in subdivision two of this section.

50 5. An employer shall pay the full amount of wages due his or her
51 employees at least twice during each calendar month, on regular paydays
52 designated in advance by the employer.

53 6. This section shall not apply to any person employed in a bona fide
54 executive, administrative, or professional capacity whose earnings are 55 in excess of nine hundred dollars a week, nor to employees working on a
56 farm not connected with a factory.

1     7. As used in this section:

2     (a) "check-deposit-return fee" means a charge which results from a
3 payroll check having been returned due to insufficient or uncollected
4 funds;

5     (b) "direct deposit" means payment of the wages of an employee by 6 causing the amount of such employee's wages to be deposited in an
7 account or accounts maintained in a financial institution or financial 8 institutions in the name of the employee;

9     (c) "financial institution" means any state-chartered or federally-
10 chartered institution authorized to accept deposits in New York; and

11     (d) "payroll debit card" means a magnetically encoded card issued by a 12 financial institution, which provides an employee with the means of 13 obtaining the full amount of all wages earned in a pay period in a form
14 that is equivalent to payment in lawful money of the United States,
15 payment by check or payment by direct deposit.

16     § 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 17 have become a law.
