AN ACT to amend the social services law, in relation to establishing school-outreach domestic violence prevention programs

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 5 of section 459-a of the social services law, 2 as amended by chapter 169 of the laws of 1994, is amended to read as 3 follows:

4 5. "Non-residential program for victims of domestic violence" means
5 any program operated by a not-for-profit organization, for the purpose
6 of providing non-residential services to victims of domestic violence,
7 including, but not limited to, information and referral services, advocacy, 8 counseling, and community education and outreach activities and 9 providing or arranging for hotline services. Victims of domestic 10 violence and their children, if any, shall constitute at least seventy 11 percent of the clientele of such programs; provided that clientele in a 12 school-outreach domestic violence prevention program shall be disregarded 13 in making this calculation.

14 § 2. Section 459-c of the social services law is amended by adding a 15 new subdivision 3 to read as follows:

16 3. (a) In accordance with the provisions of this subdivision and the 17 regulations of the office of children and family services, a social 18 services district shall purchase from a not-for-profit organization 19 operating a non-residential program for victims of domestic violence and 20 provide to students within public and private high school settings a 21 program of information and referral services, advocacy, counseling, and 22 education about domestic violence.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1     (b) To the extent that funds are appropriated expressly therefor,
2     state reimbursement shall be available for one hundred percent of the 3     expenditures made by a social services district for programs provided 4     pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision.

5     § 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after 6     it shall have become a law; provided that the commissioner of the office
7     of children and family services is authorized to promulgate any and all 8     rules and regulations and take any other measures necessary to implement 9     this act on its effective date on or before such date.
