as a result of conduct which would constitute a sexual offense as 1 defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law committed against 2 3 a child less than eighteen years of age, incest as defined in section 4 255.25, 255.26 or 255.27 of the penal law committed against a child less 5 than eighteen years of age, or the use of a child in a sexual perform-6 ance as defined in section 263.05 of the penal law, or a predecessor statute that prohibited such conduct at the time of the act, which 7 8 conduct was committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, 9 the time which the action must be commenced shall be when one knows or 10 reasonably should have known of the alleged criminal act and knows or should have known that the criminal act caused injury within three years 11 of the discovery of the injury. 12

§ 3. The civil practice law and rules is amended by adding a new section 3012-c to read as follows:

§ 3012-c. Certain child sexual abuse cases; certificate of merit. (a) Notwithstanding any provision of law which imposes a period of limitation to the contrary, every civil claim or cause of action brought by a person for physical, psychological, or other injury or condition suffered as a result of conduct which would constitute a sexual offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, incest as defined in section 255.25, 255.26 or 255.27 of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, or the use of a child in a sexual performance as defined in section 263.05 of the penal law, or a predecessor statute that prohibited such conduct at the time of the act, which conduct was committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, which is barred as of the effective date of this section because the applicable period of limitation has expired is hereby revived, and action thereon may be commenced provided that such action is commenced within one year of the effective date of this section.

(b) In any action brought pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section for physical, psychological, or other injury or condition suffered as a result of conduct which would constitute a sexual offense as described in subdivision (a) of this section, the complaint shall be accompanied by a certificate of merit as described in subdivision (c) of this section.

(c) A certificate of merit filed pursuant to subdivision (b) of this section shall be filed by the attorney for the plaintiff and shall contain a notarized statement by a qualified psychiatrist, as defined in section 9.01 of the mental hygiene law, a psychologist as licensed pursuant to article one hundred fifty-three of the education law, or a person in the practice of mental health counseling, as defined in subdivision one of section eighty-four hundred two of the education law, who is knowledgeable in the relevant facts and issues involved in the particular action, and states in reasonable detail the facts and opinions that the person has relied upon for concluding that there is a reasonable basis to believe that the plaintiff has been subject to one or more acts of child sexual abuse of the type described in subdivision (a) of this section. The person providing such statement may not be a party to the litigation.

(d) Where a certificate is required pursuant to this section, a single certificate shall be filed for each action, even if more than one defendant has been named in the complaint or is subsequently named.

§ 4. Section 50-i of the general municipal law is amended by adding a 55 new subdivision 5 to read as follows:

A. 2756 3

5. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, this section shall not apply to any claim made against a city, county, town, village, fire district or school district for physical, psychological, or other injury or condition suffered as a result of conduct of a defendant which would constitute a sexual offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, incest as defined in section 255.25, 255.26, or 255.27 of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, or the use of a child in a sexual performance as defined in section 263.05 of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age.

- § 5. The provisions of this act shall be severable, and if any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision or part of this act shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered.
- 19 § 6. This act shall take effect immediately, provided that section 20 three of this act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after this act 21 shall have become a law.
