Introduced by M. of A. PEOPLES-STOKES, SCHIMMINGER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Children and Families

AN ACT to amend the social services law, in relation to transmitting certain information to the local child protective services

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 422 of the social services law, as amended by chapter 357 of the laws of 2014, is amended to read as follows:

3 (a) The central register shall be capable of receiving telephone calls alleging child abuse or maltreatment and of immediately identifying prior reports of child abuse or maltreatment and capable of monitoring 7 the provision of child protective service twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week. To effectuate this purpose, but subject to the provisions 9 of the appropriate local plan for the provision of child protective 10 services, there shall be a single statewide telephone number that all 11 persons, whether mandated by the law or not, may use to make telephone calls alleging child abuse or maltreatment and that all persons so 12 13 authorized by this title may use for determining the existence of prior 14 reports in order to evaluate the condition or circumstances of a child. 15 In addition to the single statewide telephone number, there shall be a special unlisted express telephone number and a telephone facsimile number for use only by persons mandated by law to make telephone calls, 17 or to transmit telephone facsimile information on a form provided by the 18 19 commissioner of children and family services, alleging child abuse or 20 maltreatment, and for use by all persons so authorized by this title for 21 determining the existence of prior reports in order to evaluate the 22 condition or circumstances of a child. When any allegations contained in 23 such telephone calls could reasonably constitute a report of child abuse 24 or maltreatment, such allegations and any previous reports to the 25 central registry involving the subject of such report or children named in such report, including any previous report containing allegations of child abuse and maltreatment alleged to have occurred in other counties and districts in New York state shall be immediately transmitted orally 3 4 or electronically by the office of children and family services to the appropriate local child protective service for investigation. The inability of the person calling the register to identify the alleged 7 perpetrator shall, in no circumstance, constitute the sole cause for the register to reject such allegation or fail to transmit such allegation 9 for investigation. If the records indicate a previous report concerning 10 a subject of the report, the child alleged to be abused or maltreated, a 11 sibling, other children in the household, other persons named in the report or other pertinent information, the appropriate local child 12 13 protective service shall be immediately notified of the fact. If the 14 report involves either (i) an allegation of an abused child described in 15 paragraph (i), (ii) or (iii) of subdivision (e) of section one thousand 16 twelve of the family court act or sexual abuse of a child or the death 17 of a child or (ii) suspected maltreatment which alleges any physical harm when the report is made by a person required to report pursuant to 18 section four hundred thirteen of this title within six months of any 19 20 other two reports that were indicated, or may still be pending, involv-21 ing the same child, sibling, or other children in the household or the 22 subject of the report, the office of children and family services shall 23 identify the report as such and note any prior reports when transmitting 24 the report to the local child protective services for investigation. 25 The office of children and family services shall immediately determine 26 and then notify the appropriate local child protective services if a 27 subject of an allegation of child abuse or maltreatment is the operator 28 of a licensed or registered child care facility, or any similar facility 29 that receives funding pursuant to title five-C of article six of this 30 chapter, or if any person named in a report is a known sex offender or 31 to have previously been the subject of an indicated report of abuse or 32 neglect. Such notice to the local child protective services shall take 33 place at the time that the office of children and family services transmits the report of suspected child abuse or neglect required by this 34 35 subdivision.

36 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
