AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to the requiring of CPR certification and Heimlich maneuver training among teachers and lunch monitors in school cafeterias

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 3001-e to read as follows:

§ 3001-e. Cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) certification and Heimlich maneuver training for teachers and lunch monitors in cafeterias. On and after the effective date of this section, it shall be required of supervising teachers and other personnel overseeing a school cafeteria, to hold a valid certificate in cardiopulmonary resuscitation and to be trained in the administration of the Heimlich maneuver. Prior to the start of each school year, supervising teachers and other personnel shall provide valid evidence to their chief school officer that (i) their cardiopulmonary resuscitation knowledge and skills are current pursuant to the requirements certified by the commissioner and (ii) that they have received training in the administration of the Heimlich maneuver.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
