1 bureaus; public halls, public rooms, public elevators, and any public areas of any building or structure; institutions, clubs or places of accommodation which are licensed by the state or any of its political 3 4 subdivisions, or are the recipients of any form of abatement or exemption from taxes, in whole or in part, from the state or any of its political subdivisions. Such term shall not include kindergartens, primary and secondary schools, high schools, academies, colleges and 7 universities, extension courses, and all educational institutions under 9 the supervision of the regents of the state of New York; any such 10 kindergarten, primary and secondary school, academy, college, universi-11 ty, professional school, extension course or other education facility, supported in whole or in part by public funds or by contributions solic-12 13 ited from the general public; or any institution, club or place of 14 accommodation which proves that it is in its nature distinctly private. 15 In no event shall an institution, club or place of accommodation be 16 considered in its nature distinctly private if it has more than one 17 hundred members, provides regular meal service and regularly receives payment for dues, fees, use of space, facilities, services, meals or 18 beverages directly or indirectly from or on behalf of a nonmember for 19 20 the furtherance of trade or business. An institution, club, or place of 21 accommodation which is not deemed distinctly private pursuant to this subdivision may nevertheless apply such selective criteria as it chooses 22 in the use of its facilities, in evaluating applicants for membership 23 24 and in the conduct of its activities, so long as such selective criteria 25 do not constitute discriminatory practices under this article or any other provision of law. For the purposes of this section, a corporation 27 incorporated under the benevolent orders law or described in the benevo-28 lent orders law but formed under any other law of this state or a reli-29 gious corporation incorporated under the education law or the religious 30 corporations law shall be deemed to be in its nature distinctly private 31 and is not licensed by the state or any of its political subdivisions 32 and is not the recipient of any form of abatement or exemption from 33 taxes, in whole or in part, from the state or any of its political 34 subdivisions.

No institution, club, organization or place of accommodation which sponsors or conducts any amateur athletic contest or sparring exhibition and advertises or bills such contest or exhibition as a New York state championship contest or uses the words "New York state" in its announcements shall be deemed a private exhibition within the meaning of this section.

41 § 2. This act shall take effect on the first of September next 42 succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law.
