Introduced by M. of A. RICHARDSON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Correction

AN ACT to amend the correction law, in relation to limiting the segregated confinement of persons in a correctional facility with serious mental illness

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraphs (c), (d), (e) and (f) of subdivision 6 of 1 2 section 137 of the correction law are relettered paragraphs (e), (f), 3 (g) and (h) and two new paragraphs (c) and (d) are added to read as 4 follows: 5 (c) Inmates shall not be in segregated confinement for reason of discipline, detention, administrative segregation, protective custody, б 7 keeplock, or any other reason for admission, unless they have engaged in 8 highly dangerous or serious escape-related behavior while incarcerated 9 in that facility; 10 (d) Confinement in segregated confinement shall be limited to not more 11 than thirty days, except for an inmate whose behavior exposes a pattern 12 of extreme violence or danger to himself or others and, provided that 13 for those confined longer than thirty days, there shall be a review 14 every thirty days by an independent review board, to be known as the inmate's special housing unit review council to determine whether 15 continued segregated confinement is warranted and necessary. Such coun-16 17 cil shall be composed of seven members appointed by the governor with 18 the advice and consent of the senate. One member shall be an attorney 19 admitted to practice law in this state, one member shall be a mental 20 health professional, one member shall be a criminal justice expert 21 appointed from within employees of the state university system, and one 22 member shall be a former inmate; 23 § 2. Subparagraph (i) of paragraph (f) of subdivision 6 of section 137 24 of the correction law, as added by chapter 1 of the laws of 2008 and
