AN ACT to amend the banking law, in relation to what mortgage applicant's need to know pamphlet on residential mortgages

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The banking law is amended by adding a new section 35 to read as follows:

§ 35. Information pamphlet for residential mortgage applicants. 1. The superintendent shall develop a pamphlet known as "what mortgage applicant's need to know" and post such pamphlet on the department's web site. Such pamphlet shall be posted and printed in the six most common non-English languages spoken by individuals with limited-English proficiency in New York state as based on the most recent census. Copies of such pamphlet shall be provided to all licensed lenders and banking organizations offering residential mortgage services. A copy of such pamphlet shall be provided by licensed lenders, mortgage bankers and other banking organizations to each person before such person enters into an application for a loan secured by a mortgage upon residential real estate. Should such applicant apply for a mortgage online, the licensed lender, mortgage banker or other banking organization shall provide the applicant with the pamphlet via electronic communications, including but not limited to, electronic mail or a hyperlink to the pamphlet posted on the department's web site.

2. The pamphlet and web site notice developed pursuant to this section shall include the following, along with other information added at the discretion of the superintendent not otherwise inconsistent with the information set forth in the pamphlet:

"WHAT MORTGAGE APPLICANTS NEED TO KNOW

As an applicant for a residential mortgage you have the right to:
