2 hearing may be viewed.

3 § 3. Subdivision 1 of section 440.50 of the criminal procedure law, as 4 amended by section 80 of subpart B of part C of chapter 62 of the laws
5 of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

6 1. Upon the request of a victim of a crime, or in any event in all
7 cases in which the final disposition includes a conviction of a violent 8 felony offense as defined in section 70.02 of the penal law or a felony 9 defined in article one hundred twenty-five of such law, the district
10 attorney shall, within sixty days of the final disposition of the case, 11 inform the victim by letter of such final disposition. If such final 12 disposition results in the commitment of the defendant to the custody of 13 the department of corrections and community supervision for an indeter-14 minate sentence, the notice provided to the crime victim shall also 15 inform the victim of his or her right to submit a written, audiotaped, 16 or videotaped victim impact statement to the department of corrections 17 and community supervision or to meet personally with a member of the 18 state board of parole at a time and place separate from the personal 19 interview between a member or members of the board and the inmate and 20 make such a statement, subject to procedures and limitations contained 21 in rules of the board, both pursuant to subdivision two of section two 22 hundred fifty-nine-i of the executive law. The right of the victim under 23 this subdivision to submit a written victim impact statement or to meet 24 personally with a member of the state board of parole applies to each 25 personal interview between a member or members of the board and the 26 inmate. The notice to the victim shall also inform the victim of his or 27 her right to view the defendant's parole hearing on closed circuit tele-28 vision or over a secure online website and shall inform the victim of 29 the intended date and time of the parole hearing as well as the location 30 or website address at which the victim may view the hearing.

31 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
