§ 2. Section 701 of the correction law, as amended by chapter 342 of the laws of 1972, subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 235 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read as follows:

§ 701. Certificate of ~~[relief from disabilities]~~ restoration. 1. A certificate of ~~[relief from disabilities]~~ restoration may be granted as provided in this article to relieve an eligible offender of any forfeiture or disability, or to remove any bar to his or her employment, automatically imposed by law by reason of his or her conviction of the crime or of the offense specified therein. Such certificate may be limited to one or more enumerated forfeitures, disabilities or bars, or may relieve the eligible offender of all forfeitures, disabilities and bars. Provided, however, that no such certificate shall apply, or be construed so as to apply, to the right of such person to retain or to be eligible for public office.

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, except subdivision five of section twenty-eight hundred six of the public health law or paragraph (b) of subdivision two of section eleven hundred ninety-three of the vehicle and traffic law, a conviction of a crime or of an offense specified in a certificate of ~~[relief from disabilities]~~ restoration shall not cause automatic forfeiture of any license, other than a license issued pursuant to section 400.00 of the penal law to a person convicted of a class A-I felony or a violent felony offense, as defined in subdivision one of section 70.02 of the penal law, permit, employment, or franchise, including the right to register for or vote at an election, or automatic forfeiture of any other right or privilege, held by the eligible offender and covered by the certificate. Nor shall such conviction be deemed to be a conviction within the meaning of any provision of law that imposes, by reason of a conviction, a bar to any employment, a disability to exercise any right, or a disability to apply for or to receive any license, permit, or other authority or privilege covered by the certificate; provided, however, that a conviction for a second or subsequent violation of any subdivision of section eleven hundred ninety-two of the vehicle and traffic law committed within the preceding ten years shall impose a disability to apply for or receive an operator's license during the period provided in such law; and provided further, however, that a conviction for a class A-I felony or a violent felony offense, as defined in subdivision one of section 70.02 of the penal law, shall impose a disability to apply for or receive a license or permit issued pursuant to section 400.00 of the penal law. A certificate of ~~[relief from a disability]~~ restoration imposed pursuant to subparagraph (v) of paragraph b of subdivision two and paragraphs i and j of subdivision six of section five hundred ten of the vehicle and traffic law may only be issued upon a determination that compelling circumstances warrant such relief.

3. A certificate of ~~[relief from disabilities]~~ restoration shall not, however, in any way prevent any judicial, administrative, licensing or other body, board or authority from ~~[relying upon]~~ considering the conviction specified therein as the basis for the exercise of its discretionary power to suspend, revoke, refuse to issue or refuse to renew any license, permit or other authority or privilege in accordance with the provisions of article twenty-three-A of this chapter.

4. Notwithstanding any other section of law, a certificate of good conduct or a certificate of relief from disabilities shall be construed to mean a certificate of restoration. Any certificate of relief from disabilities or certificate of good conduct issued prior to the effective date of the chapter of the laws of two thousand seventeen that added this subdivision shall be deemed the equivalent of a certificate of restoration and shall remain in full force and effect on and after such effective date. Nothing in the chapter of the laws of two thousand seventeen that added this subdivision shall be read to invalidate a certificate of relief from disabilities or a certificate of good conduct issued prior to the effective date of the chapter of the laws of two thousand seventeen that added this subdivision on or after such effective date.

§ 3. Section 702 of the correction law, as amended by chapter 342 of the laws of 1972, the section heading as amended by chapter 931 of the laws of 1976, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 488 of the laws of 2011, subdivision 3 as amended by section 64 of part A of chapter 56 of the laws of 2010 and subdivisions 4 and 6 as amended by section 32 of subpart B of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

§ 702. Certificates of [~~relief from disabilities~~] restoration issued by courts. 1. Any court of this state may, in its discretion, issue a certificate of [~~relief from disabilities~~] restoration to an eligible offender for a conviction that occurred in such court, if the court either (a) imposed a revocable sentence or (b) imposed a sentence other than one executed by commitment to an institution under the jurisdiction of the state department of corrections and community supervision. Such certificate may be issued (i) at the time sentence is pronounced, in which case it may grant relief from forfeitures, as well as from disabilities[~~r~~] or (ii) at any time thereafter, in which case it shall apply only to disabilities. Where such court either imposes a revocable sentence or imposes a sentence other than one executed by commitment to an institution under the jurisdiction of the state department of corrections and community supervision, the court, upon application and in accordance with subdivision two of this section, shall initially determine the fitness of an eligible offender for such certificate prior to or at the time sentence is pronounced.

2. Such certificate shall [~~not~~] be issued by the court [~~unless~~] when the court is satisfied that:

(a) The person to whom it is to be granted is an eligible offender, as defined in section seven hundred;

(b) The relief to be granted by the certificate is consistent with the rehabilitation of the eligible offender; and

(c) The relief to be granted by the certificate is consistent with the public interest.

3. Where a certificate of [~~relief from disabilities~~] restoration is not issued at the time sentence is pronounced it shall only be issued thereafter upon verified application to the court. The court may, for the purpose of determining whether such certificate shall be issued, request its probation service to conduct an investigation of the applicant, or if the court has no probation service it may request the probation service of the county court for the county in which the court

1 is located to conduct such investigation. Any probation officer
2 requested to make an investigation pursuant to this section shall 3 prepare and submit to the court a written report in accordance with such 4 request.

5 4. Where the court has imposed a revocable sentence and the certif-
6 icate of [~~relief from disabilities~~] restoration is issued prior to the 7 expiration or termination of the time which the court may revoke such
8 sentence, the certificate shall be deemed to be a temporary certificate
9 until such time as the court's authority to revoke the sentence has 10 expired or is terminated. While temporary, such certificate (a) may be 11 revoked by the court for violation of the conditions of the sentence, 12 and (b) shall be revoked by the court if it revokes the sentence and 13 commits the person to an institution under the jurisdiction of the state
14 department of corrections and community supervision. Any such revocation
15 shall be upon notice and after an opportunity to be heard. If the 16 certificate is not so revoked, it shall become a permanent certificate
17 upon expiration or termination of the court's authority to revoke the 18 sentence.

19 5. Any court that has issued a certificate of [~~relief from disabili-~~
20 ~~ties~~] restoration may at any time issue a new certificate to enlarge the 21 relief previously granted, provided, however, that the provisions of 22 subdivisions one through four of this section shall apply to the issu-
23 ance of any such new certificate.

24 6. Any written report submitted to the court pursuant to this section 25 is confidential and may not be made available to any person or public or 26 private agency except where specifically required or permitted by stat-
27 ute or upon specific authorization of the court. However, upon the 28 court's receipt of such report, the court shall provide a copy of such 29 report, or direct that such report be provided to the applicant's attor-
30 ney, or the applicant himself or herself, if he or she has no attorney.
31 In its discretion, the court may except from disclosure a part or parts
32 of the report which are not relevant to the granting of a certificate,
33 or sources of information which have been obtained on a promise of 34 confidentiality, or any other portion thereof, disclosure of which would 35 not be in the interest of justice. The action of the court excepting 36 information from disclosure shall be subject to appellate review. The 37 court, in its discretion, may hold a conference in open court or in 38 chambers to afford an applicant an opportunity to controvert or to 39 comment upon any portions of the report. The court may also conduct a 40 summary hearing at the conference on any matter relevant to the granting 41 of the application and may take testimony under oath.

42 § 4. Section 703 of the correction law, as amended by section 34 of 43 subpart B of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, is amended to 44 read as follows:

45 § 703. Certificates of [~~relief from disabilities~~] restoration issued 46 by the department of corrections and community supervision. 1. The 47 department of corrections and community supervision shall have the power 48 to issue a certificate of [~~relief from disabilities~~] restoration to:

49 (a) any eligible offender who has been committed to an institution
50 under the jurisdiction of the state department of corrections and commu-
51 nity supervision. Such certificate may be issued by the department at 52 the time the offender is released from such institution under the 53 department's supervision or otherwise or at any time thereafter, upon 54 application of the offender;

(b) any eligible offender who resides within this state and whose judgment of conviction was rendered by a court in any other jurisdiction.

2. Where the department has issued a certificate of ~~[relief from disabilities]~~ restoration, the department may at any time issue a new certificate enlarging the relief previously granted.

3. The department shall ~~[not]~~ issue ~~[any]~~ a certificate of ~~[relief from disabilities pursuant to subdivisions one or two, unless]~~ restoration when the department is satisfied that:

(a) The person to whom it is to be granted is an eligible offender, as defined in section seven hundred of this article;

(b) The relief to be granted by the certificate is consistent with the rehabilitation of the eligible offender; ~~[and]~~

(c) The relief to be granted by the certificate is consistent with the public interest~~[-]~~; and

(d) Two years have elapsed since release from custody for persons with a prior felony conviction sentenced pursuant to section 70.04, 70.06, 70.07, 70.08 or 70.10 of the penal law.

4. Any certificate of ~~[relief from disabilities]~~ restoration issued by the department to an eligible offender who at time of the issuance of the certificate is under the department's supervision, shall be deemed to be a temporary certificate until such time as the eligible offender is discharged from the department's supervision, and, while temporary, such certificate may be revoked by the department for violation of the conditions of community supervision. Revocation shall be upon notice to the releasee, who shall be accorded an opportunity to explain the violation prior to decision thereon. If the certificate is not so revoked, it shall become a permanent certificate upon expiration or termination of the department's jurisdiction over the individual.

5. In granting or revoking a certificate of ~~[relief from disabilities]~~ restoration the action of the department shall be deemed a judicial function and shall not be reviewable if done according to law.

6. For the purpose of determining whether such certificate shall be issued, the department may conduct an investigation of the applicant.

7. Presumption based on federal recommendation. Where a certificate of ~~[relief from disabilities]~~ restoration is sought pursuant to paragraph (b) of subdivision one of this section on a judgment of conviction rendered by a federal district court in this state and the department is in receipt of a written recommendation in favor of the issuance of such certificate from the chief probation officer of the district, the department shall issue the requested certificate, unless it finds that the requirements of paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of subdivision three of this section have not been satisfied; or that the interests of justice would not be advanced by the issuance of the certificate.

§ 5. Sections 703-a and 703-b of the correction law are REPEALED.

§ 6. Section 704 of the correction law, as added by chapter 654 of the laws of 1966, is amended to read as follows:

§ 704. Effect of revocation; use of revoked certificate. 1. Where a certificate of ~~[relief from disabilities]~~ restoration is deemed to be temporary and such certificate is revoked, disabilities and forfeitures thereby relieved shall be reinstated as of the date upon which the person to whom the certificate was issued receives written notice of such revocation. Any such person shall upon receipt of such notice surrender the certificate to the issuing court or board.

2. A person who knowingly uses or attempts to use, a revoked certificate of ~~[relief from disabilities]~~ restoration in order to obtain or to

1 exercise any right or privilege that he would not be entitled to obtain
2 or to exercise without a valid certificate shall be guilty of a misde-
3 meanor.

4 § 7. Section 705 of the correction law, as amended by section 36 of
5 subpart B of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, is amended to
