AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to providing a tax deduction for donating organs; and to amend the labor law, in relation to job security for those individuals who decide to donate an organ

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subsection (c) of section 612 of the tax law is amended by
2 adding a new paragraph 42 to read as follows:

3 (42) Up to ten thousand dollars for any person who donates one or more
4 of his or her human organs to another human being for human organ trans-
5 plantation. Such deduction may only be taken once in a donor's lifetime.
6 The deduction shall equal that amount of non-reimbursed expenses relat-
7 ing to travel, lodging, medical expenses and lost wages, but in no event
8 shall the aggregate amount of the deduction exceed ten thousand dollars.
9 The deduction must be taken in either the year the transplant occurs, or 10 the year immediately following the year the transplant occurs. For 11 purposes of this paragraph, "human organ" means all or part of a liver,
12 pancreas, lung, kidney, intestine, or bone marrow.

13 § 2. Subdivision 2 of section 201-d of the labor law is amended by 14 adding a new paragraph e to read as follows:

15 e. an individual's decision to donate a human organ and for his or her
16 absence from work during the recovery period of such donation.

17 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to taxable 18 years commencing on or after such effective date, provided that the 19 commissioner of taxation and finance shall promulgate any rule or regu-
20 lation necessary for the timely implementation of this act.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.
