IN ASSEMBLY

January 30, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. AUBRY -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Employees

AN ACT in relation to directing the president of the state civil service commission to publish reports relating to diversity within the state government

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The president of the state civil service commission within the department of civil service is hereby directed to study and publish annual reports recording data relating to diversity within the state and civil divisions thereof as well as appointments to all state agencies, authorities, boards, bureaus, commissions, departments and divisions.

The president of the state civil service commission shall annually publish such reports and findings. Such reports shall be sent to the chair of the senate standing committee on investigations and government operations and to the chair of the assembly standing committee on governmental employees no later than the first of February in each year.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
