IN ASSEMBLY

January 30, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. ORTIZ, GOTTFRIED, COLTON, HOOPER, JOYNER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Higher Education

AN ACT to amend the mental hygiene law, in relation to authorizing nurse practitioners to admit a patient to an inpatient mental health unit on a voluntary basis

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 9.01 of the mental hygiene law is amended by adding 2 a new ninth undesignated paragraph to read as follows:

3 "qualified nurse practitioner" means an individual licensed pursuant 4 to article one hundred thirty-nine of the education law and certified as 5 a nurse practitioner pursuant to section sixty-nine hundred two of the 6 education law with a certificate in the specialty of psychiatry.

7 § 2. Subdivision (a) of section 9.13 of the mental hygiene law, as 8 amended by chapter 465 of the laws of 1992, is amended to read as 9 follows:

10 (a) The director of any hospital may receive as a voluntary patient 11 any suitable person in need of care and treatment, who voluntarily makes 12 written application therefor. To the extent that such written applica-13 tion requires an examination of the patient and confirmation that the 14 patient has a mental illness for which care and treatment in a mental 15 hospital is appropriate, such evaluation and confirmation shall be made 16 by either a physician or a qualified nurse practitioner. If the person 17 is under sixteen years of age, the person may be received as a voluntary 18 patient only on the application of the parent, legal guardian, or next-19 of-kin of such person, or, subject to the terms of any court order or 20 any instrument executed pursuant to section three hundred eighty-four-a 21 of the social services law, a social services official or authorized 22 agency with care and custody of such person pursuant to the social 23 services law, the director of the division for youth, acting in accord-24 ance with section five hundred nine of the executive law, or a person or

1 entity having custody of the person pursuant to an order issued pursuant
2 to section seven hundred fifty-six or one thousand fifty-five of the 3 family court act. If the person is over sixteen and under eighteen years 4 of age, the director may, in his discretion, admit such person either as 5 a voluntary patient on his own application or on the application of the 6 person's parent, legal guardian, next-of-kin, or, subject to the terms 7 of any court order or any instrument executed pursuant to section three 8 hundred eighty-four-a of the social services law, a social services
9 official or authorized agency with care and custody of such person 10 pursuant to the social services law, the director of the division for 11 youth, acting in accordance with section five hundred nine of the execu-
12 tive law, provided that such person knowingly and voluntarily consented 13 to such application in accordance with such section, or a person or 14 entity having custody of the person pursuant to an order issued pursuant 15 to section seven hundred fifty-six or one thousand fifty-five of the 16 family court act.

17 § 3. Section 9.15 of the mental hygiene law, as renumbered by chapter 18 978 of the laws of 1977, is amended to read as follows:

19 § 9.15 Informal admissions.

20 The director of any hospital approved by the commissioner for such 21 purpose may receive therein as an informal patient any suitable person
22 in need of care and treatment requesting admission thereto. Such person 23 may be admitted as a patient without making formal or written applica-24 tion therefor and any such patient shall be free to leave such hospital
25 at any time after such admission. To the extent that such admission
26 requires an examination of the patient and confirmation that the patient 27 has a mental illness for which care and treatment in a mental hospital
28 is appropriate, such evaluation and confirmation shall be made by either 29 a physician or a qualified nurse practitioner.

30 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
