AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to providing for the award of attorney's fees and expert witness fees in appropriate cases

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 10 of section 297 of the executive law, as 2 amended by chapter 364 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as 3 follows:

3 10. [With respect to all cases of housing discrimination and housing 5 related credit discrimination in In an action or proceeding at law under this section or section two hundred ninety-eight of this article, 7 the commissioner or the court may in its discretion award reasonable attorney's fees to any prevailing or substantially prevailing party; and with respect to a claim of employment or credit discrimination where sex 10 is a basis of such discrimination, in an action or proceeding at law 11 under this section or section two hundred ninety-eight of this article, 12 the commissioner or the court may in its discretion award reasonable attorney's fees attributable to such claim to any prevailing party; 13 14 provided, however, that a prevailing respondent or defendant in order to 15 recover such reasonable attorney's fees must make a motion requesting such fees and show that the action or proceeding brought was frivolous; and further provided that in a proceeding brought in the division of 17 human rights, the commissioner may only award attorney's fees as part of 18 a final order after a public hearing held pursuant to subdivision four 19 20 of this section. In no case shall attorney's fees be awarded to the division, nor shall the division be liable to a prevailing or substan-22 tially prevailing party for attorney's fees, except in a case in which 23 the division is a party to the action or the proceeding in the division's capacity as an employer. Expert witness fees may be awarded in 25 the same manner as attorney's fees. In cases of employment discrimination, a respondent shall only be liable for attorney's fees under this subdivision if the respondent has been found liable for having committed an unlawful discriminatory practice. In order to find the action or proceeding to be frivolous, the court or the commissioner must find in writing one or more of the following:

- (a) the action or proceeding was commenced, used or continued in bad faith, solely to delay or prolong the resolution of the litigation or to harass or maliciously injure another; or
- 9 (b) the action or proceeding was commenced or continued in bad faith 10 without any reasonable basis and could not be supported by a good faith 11 argument for an extension, modification or reversal of existing law. If 12 the action or proceeding was promptly discontinued when the party or 13 attorney learned or should have learned that the action or proceeding 14 lacked such a reasonable basis, the court may find that the party or the 15 attorney did not act in bad faith.
- 16 § 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 17 have become a law.
