IN ASSEMBLY

January 30, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. PRETLOW -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Employees

AN ACT to amend the civil service law, in relation to disputes arising from collective negotiations

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 6 of section 209-a of the civil service law, as 2 amended by chapter 467 of the laws of 1990 and as renumbered by chapter
3 695 of the laws of 1994, is amended to read as follows:

4 6. Application. In applying this section, fundamental distinctions
5 between private and public employment shall be recognized, and no body
6 of federal or state law applicable wholly or in part to private employ-7 ment, shall be regarded as binding or controlling precedent. With 8 respect to any improper practice charge filed against either a public 9 employer or a public employee organization that alleges a refusal to 10 negotiate in good faith a presumption of bad faith shall apply whenever 11 the last agreement between the parties or, as applicable, the last 12 interest arbitration award between them, has been expired for a period
13 in excess of one year from final execution of the agreement or delivery 14 of the award to the parties and no new agreement has been reached at the 15 date such improper practice charge is filed.

16 § 2. Subdivision 1 of section 209 of the civil service law, as amended 17 by chapter 216 of the laws of 1977, is amended to read as follows:

18 1. (a) For purposes of this section, an impasse may be deemed to exist 19 if the parties fail to achieve agreement at least one hundred twenty 20 days prior to the end of the fiscal year of the public employer and 21 shall be deemed to exist if the last agreement between the parties at 22 impasse, or as applicable, their last interest arbitration award, has 23 been expired for a period in excess of one year from final execution of 24 the agreement or delivery of the arbitration award to the parties.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 (b) In any circumstance in which an impasse has been found to exist or 2 has been deemed to exist, the board shall take such action as it consid-3 ers to be necessary and appropriate to ensure the completion without 4 delay of any and all applicable impasse resolution procedures authorized 5 or required by this article.

6 § 3. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 of section 210 of the civil 7 service law, as amended by chapter 24 of the laws of 1969, is amended to 8 read as follows:

9 (b) Presumption. (i) For purposes of this subdivision an employee who 10 is absent from work without permission, or who abstains wholly or in 11 part from the full performance of his duties in his normal manner with-12 out permission, on the date or dates when a strike occurs, shall be 13 presumed to have engaged in such strike on such date or dates.

14 (ii) Any strike which occurs on a date or dates more than one year
15 after the expiration of the last agreement between the employee's public 16 employer and the public employee organization representing such employ-17 ee, or, as applicable, more than one year after delivery of an interest
18 arbitration award to such employee's employer and public employee organ-
19 ization shall be presumed to have been one caused by acts of extreme 20 provocation within the meaning of this article.

21 § 4. Paragraph (f) of subdivision 3 of section 210 of the civil 22 service law, as amended by chapter 677 of the laws of 1977, is amended 23 to read as follows:

24 (f) If the board determines that an employee organization has violated
25 the provisions of subdivision one of this section, the board shall order 26 forfeiture of the rights granted pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 27 (b) of subdivision one, and subdivision three of section two hundred 28 eight of this ~~chapter~~ article, for such specified period of time as 29 the board shall determine, or, in the discretion of the board, for an 30 indefinite period of time subject to restoration upon application, with 31 notice to all interested parties, supported by proof of good faith
32 compliance with the requirements of subdivision one of this section
33 since the date of such violation, such proof to include, for example, 34 the successful negotiation, without a violation of subdivision one of 35 this section, of a contract covering the employees in the unit affected 36 by such violation; provided, however, that where a fine imposed on an 37 employee organization pursuant to subdivision two of section seven 38 hundred fifty-one of the judiciary law remains wholly or partly unpaid, 39 after the exhaustion of the cash and securities of the employee organ-
40 ization, the board shall direct that, notwithstanding such forfeiture,
41 such membership dues deduction shall be continued to the extent neces-42 sary to pay such fine and such public employer shall transmit such 43 moneys to the court. In fixing the duration of the forfeiture, the 44 board, or any other court or other tribunal authorized by law, including 45 without limitation section seven hundred fifty-one of the judiciary law, 46 to determine such issue shall consider all the relevant facts and 47 circumstances, including but not limited to: (i) the extent of any 48 wilful defiance of subdivision one of this section; (ii) the impact of 49 the strike on the public health, safety, and welfare of the community 50 ~~[and];~~ (iii) the financial resources of the employee organization; ~~[and~~ 51 ~~the board may consider (i)]~~ (iv) the refusal of the employee organiza-
52 tion or the appropriate public employer or the representative thereof,
53 to submit to the [mediation and fact-finding] impasse resolution proce-
54 dures provided in section two hundred nine of this article; and ~~[(ii)]~~
55 (v) whether, if so alleged by the employee organization, the appropriate 56 public employer or its representatives engaged in such acts of extreme

1 provocation as to detract from the responsibility of the employee organ-
2 ization for the strike. In determining the financial resources of the 3 employee organization, the board shall consider both the income and the 4 assets of such employee organization. In the event membership dues are 5 collected by the public employer as provided in paragraph (b) of subdi-6 vision one of section two hundred eight of this [~~chapter~~ article, the 7 books and records of such public employer shall be prima facie evidence 8 of the amount so collected.
9 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
