AN ACT to study the feasibility of implementing an emergency alert notification system; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. 1. The public service commission, hereinafter referred to 2 as "the commission", in conjunction with the commissioner of the divi-
3 sion of homeland security and emergency services, and in consultation 4 with the disaster preparedness commission, and any other entity the 5 commission and commissioner of the division of homeland security and 6 emergency services deems appropriate, shall study the feasibility of 7 implementing an emergency alert notification system that requires alerts 8 to be displayed while using a video streaming service.

9 For the purposes of this act, "video streaming service" shall mean an 10 entity directly in the business, for profit, of offering, promoting or 11 providing access to films, television shows or other video content for 12 viewing on or through the internet.

13 2. The feasibility study of such emergency alert notification system 14 shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

15 (a) examining ways to ensure that such emergency alert notification 16 system shall convey timely information concerning emergency incidents or 17 occurrences, including, but not limited to severe weather, that pose an 18 imminent threat to the health or safety of individuals in New York;

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD08174-04-7

1 (b) examining how an emergency alert notification shall be displayed
2 while using a video streaming service;

3 (c) examining how internet service providers and video streaming
4 services would ensure such emergency alert notifications are displayed 5 to users impacted by such emergency;

6 (d) examining relevant federal, state, and local laws, rules, regu-
7 lations, and guidelines; and

8 (e) recommending statutory changes, if any, to implement such emergen-
9 cy alert notification system.

10 3. Such feasibility study shall be submitted to the governor, the 11 temporary president of the senate, and the speaker of the assembly with-12 in 12 months of the effective date of this act and shall be publicly 13 posted on the websites of the commission and the division of homeland 14 security and emergency services.

15 4. The commission and the commissioner of the division of homeland
16 security and emergency services may request, and is authorized to 17 receive, any information from any state or local agency that is relevant 18 and material to the completion of such feasibility study. Such informa-19 tion received by the commission and commissioner of the division of 20 homeland security and emergency services shall be subject to the same 21 requirements for confidentiality and limitations on use, if any, as are 22 applicable to such state or local agency's use of such information.

23 5. The commission and the commissioner of the division of homeland
24 security and emergency services are authorized and directed to use
25 existing commission and division of homeland security and emergency 26 services' resources to carry out the provisions of this act.

27 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall expire and be 28 deemed repealed two years after such effective date, or upon delivery of 29 the feasibility study required by section one this act, whichever comes 30 first; provided that the commissioner of the division of homeland secu-31 rity and emergency services shall notify the legislative bill drafting 32 commission upon delivery of the feasibility study required by section 33 one of this act in order that the commission may maintain an accurate 34 and timely effective data base of the official text of the laws of the 35 state of New York in furtherance of effectuating the provisions of 36 section 44 of the legislative law and section 70-b of the public offi-37 cers law.
