1 1. Prosecution's performance of obligations. (a) The prosecution shall 2 perform its initial discovery obligations under subdivision one of 3 section 245.20 of this article as soon as practicable but not later 4 than fifteen calendar days after the defendant's arraignment on an 5 indictment, superior court information, prosecutor's information, infor-6 mation, or simplified information. Portions of materials claimed to be 7 non-discoverable may be withheld pending a determination and ruling of 8 the court under section 245.70 of this article; but the defendant shall 9 be notified in writing that information has not been disclosed under a 10 particular subdivision of such section, and the discoverable portions of 11 such materials shall be disclosed if practicable. When the discoverable 12 materials are exceptionally voluminous, the time period in this para-13 graph may be stayed by up to an additional thirty calendar days without 14 need for a motion pursuant to subdivision two of section 245.70 of this 15 article.

16 (b) The prosecution shall perform its supplemental discovery obli-17 gations under subdivision three of section 245.20 of this article as 18 soon as practicable but not later than fifteen calendar days before 19 trial.

20 (c) Upon timely defense request, the prosecution shall disclose mate-21 rials under paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section 245.20 of this 22 article to any defendant who has been arraigned in a local criminal 23 court upon a currently undisposed of felony complaint charging an 24 offense which is a subject of a prospective or pending grand jury 25 proceeding, no later than forty-eight hours before the time scheduled 26 for the defendant to testify at a grand jury proceeding pursuant to 27 subdivision five of section 190.50 of this part.

28 2. Defendant's performance of obligations. The defendant shall perform 29 his or her discovery obligations under subdivision four of section 30 245.20 of this article not later than thirty calendar days after being 31 served with the prosecution's certificate of compliance pursuant to 32 subdivision one of section 245.50 of this article, except that portions 33 of materials claimed to be non-discoverable may be withheld pending a 34 determination and ruling of the court under section 245.70 of this arti-
35 cle; but the prosecution must be notified in writing that information 36 has not been disclosed under a particular section.

37 § 245.20 Automatic discovery.

38 1. Initial discovery for the defendant. The prosecution shall disclose 39 to the defendant, and permit the defendant to discover, inspect, copy or 40 photograph, each of the following items and information when it relates 41 to the subject matter of the case and is in the possession, custody or 42 control of the prosecution or persons under the prosecution's direction 43 or control:

44 (a) All written or recorded statements, and the substance of all oral 45 statements, made by the defendant or a co-defendant to a public servant 46 engaged in law enforcement activity or to a person then acting under his 47 or her direction or in cooperation with him or her, other than state-48 ments made in the course of the criminal transaction.

49 (b) All transcripts of the testimony of a person who has testified 50 before a grand jury, including but not limited to the defendant or a 51 co-defendant. If in the exercise of reasonable diligence, and due to the 52 limited availability of transcription resources, a transcript is 53 unavailable for disclosure within the time period specified in subdivi-54 sion one of section 245.10 of this article, such time period may be 55 stayed by up to an additional thirty calendar days without need for a 56 motion pursuant to subdivision two of section 245.70 of this article;

1 except that such disclosure shall be made as soon as practicable and not 2 later than thirty calendar days before a scheduled trial date, unless 3 an order is obtained pursuant to section 245.70 of this article. When 4 the court is required to review grand jury transcripts, the prosecution 5 shall disclose such transcripts to the court expeditiously upon receipt 6 by the prosecutor, notwithstanding the otherwise-applicable time periods 7 for disclosure in this article.

8 (c) The names of, and addresses or adequate alternative contact infor-9 mation for, all persons other than law enforcement personnel whom the 10 prosecutor knows to have evidence or information relevant to any offense 11 charged or to a potential defense thereto, including a designation by 12 the prosecutor as to which of those persons may be called as witnesses.
13 Information under this subdivision relating to a confidential informant 14 may be withheld, and redacted from discovery materials, without need for 15 a motion pursuant to section 245.70 of this article; but the defendant 16 shall be notified in writing that such information has not been 17 disclosed, unless the court rules otherwise for good cause shown.

18 (d) The name and work affiliation of all law enforcement personnel 19 whom the prosecutor knows to have evidence or information relevant to 20 any offense charged or to a potential defense thereto, including a 21 designation by the prosecutor as to which of those persons may be called 22 as witnesses. Information under this subdivision relating to undercover 23 personnel may be withheld, and redacted from discovery materials, with-24 out need for a motion pursuant to section 245.70 of this article; but 25 the defendant shall be notified in writing that such information has not 26 been disclosed, unless the court rules otherwise for good cause shown.

27 (e) All statements, written or recorded or summarized in any writing 28 or recording, made by persons who have evidence or information relevant 29 to any offense charged or to a potential defense thereto, including all 30 police reports and law enforcement agency reports. This provision also 31 includes statements, written or recorded or summarized in any writing or 32 recording, by persons to be called as witnesses at pre-trial hearings.

33 (f) Expert opinion evidence, including the name, business address, 34 current curriculum vitae, and a list of publications of each expert 35 witness whom the prosecutor intends to call as a witness at trial or a 36 pre-trial hearing, and all reports prepared by the expert that pertain 37 to the case, or if no report is prepared, a written statement of the 38 facts and opinions to which the expert is expected to testify and a 39 summary of the grounds for each opinion. This paragraph does not alter 40 or in any way affect the procedures, obligations or rights set forth in 41 section 250.10 of this title. If in the exercise of reasonable dili-42 gence this information is unavailable for disclosure within the time 43 period specified in subdivision one of section 245.10 of this article, 44 that period shall be stayed without need for a motion pursuant to 45 subdivision two of section 245.70 of this article; except that the 46 disclosure shall be made as soon as practicable and not later than sixty 47 calendar days before a scheduled trial date, unless an order is obtained 48 pursuant to section 245.70 of this article. When the prosecution's 49 expert witness is being called in response to disclosure of an expert 50 witness by the defendant, the court shall alter a scheduled trial date, 51 if necessary, to allow the prosecution thirty calendar days to make the 52 disclosure and the defendant thirty calendar days to prepare and respond 53 to the new materials.

54 (g) All tapes or other electronic recordings which the prosecution 55 intends to introduce at trial or a pre-trial hearing.

1 (h) All photographs and drawings made or completed by a public servant
2 engaged in law enforcement activity, or which were made by a person
3 whom the prosecutor intends to call as a witness at trial or a pre-trial 4 hearing, or which the prosecution intends to introduce at trial or a 5 pre-trial hearing.

6 (i) All photographs, photocopies and reproductions made by or at the 7 direction of law enforcement personnel of any property prior to its 8 release pursuant to section 450.10 of the penal law.

9 (j) All reports, documents, data, calculations or writings, including 10 but not limited to preliminary tests or screening results and bench
11 notes, concerning physical or mental examinations, or scientific tests 12 or experiments or comparisons, and analyses performed electronically, 13 relating to the criminal action or proceeding which were made by or at 14 the request or direction of a public servant engaged in law enforcement 15 activity, or which were made by a person whom the prosecutor intends to 16 call as a witness at trial or a pre-trial hearing, or which the prose-17 cution intends to introduce at trial or a pre-trial hearing.

18 (k) All evidence and information, including that which is known to 19 police or other law enforcement agencies acting on the government's 20 behalf in the case, that tends to: (i) negate the defendant's guilt as 21 to a charged offense; (ii) reduce the degree of or mitigate the defend-22 ant's culpability as to a charged offense; (iii) support a potential 23 defense to a charged offense; (iv) impeach the credibility of a testi-24 fying prosecution witness; (v) undermine evidence of the defendant's 25 identity as a perpetrator of a charged offense; (vi) provide a basis for 26 a motion to suppress evidence; or (vii) mitigate punishment. Informa-27 tion under this subdivision shall be disclosed whether or not such 28 information is recorded in tangible form and irrespective of whether the 29 prosecutor credits the information. The prosecutor shall disclose the 30 information expeditiously upon its receipt and shall not delay disclo-31 sure if it is obtained earlier than the time period for disclosure in 32 subdivision one of section 245.10 of this article.

33 (l) A summary of all promises, rewards and inducements made to, or in 34 favor of, persons who may be called as witnesses, as well as requests 35 for consideration by persons who may be called as witnesses and copies 36 of all documents relevant to a promise, reward or inducement.

37 (m) A list of all tangible objects obtained from, or allegedly 38 possessed by, the defendant or a co-defendant. The list shall include a 39 designation by the prosecutor as to which objects were physically or 40 constructively possessed by the defendant and were recovered during a 41 search or seizure by a public servant or an agent thereof, and which 42 tangible objects were recovered by a public servant or an agent thereof 43 after allegedly being abandoned by the defendant. If the prosecution 44 intends to prove the defendant's possession of any tangible objects by 45 means of a statutory presumption of possession, it shall designate such 46 intention as to each such object. If reasonably practicable, the prose-47 cution shall also designate the location from which each tangible object 48 was recovered. There is also a right to inspect or copy or photograph 49 the listed tangible objects.

50 (n) Whether a search warrant has been executed and all documents 51 relating thereto, including but not limited to the warrant, the warrant 52 application, supporting affidavits, a police inventory of all property 53 seized under the warrant, and a transcript of all testimony or other 54 oral communications offered in support of the warrant application.

55 (o) All tangible property that the prosecution intends to introduce in 56 its case-in-chief at trial or a pre-trial hearing. If in the exercise of 1 reasonable diligence the prosecutor has not formed an intention within 2 the time period specified in subdivision one of section 245.10 of this 3 article that an item under this subdivision will be introduced at trial 4 or a pre-trial hearing, such time period shall be stayed without need 5 for a motion pursuant to subdivision two of section 245.70 of this arti-

6 cle; but the disclosure shall be made as soon as practicable and subject 7 to the continuing duty to disclose in section 245.60 of this article.

8 (p) The results of complete criminal history record checks for all 9 defendants and all persons designated as potential prosecution witnesses 10 pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subdivision, other than those 11 witnesses who are experts.

12 (q) When it is known to the prosecution, the existence of any pending 13 criminal action against all persons designated as potential prosecution 14 witnesses pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subdivision.

15 (r) The approximate date, time and place of the offense or offenses 16 charged and of the defendant's seizure and arrest.

17 (s) In any prosecution alleging a violation of the vehicle and traffic 18 law, where the defendant is charged by indictment, superior court infor-19 mation, prosecutor's information, information, or simplified informa-20 tion, the most recent record of inspection, calibration and repair of 21 machines and instruments utilized to perform any scientific tests and 22 experiments and the certification certificate, if any, held by the oper-23 ator of the machine or instrument, and all other disclosures required 24 under this article.

25 (t) In any prosecution alleging a violation of section 156.05 or 26 156.10 of the penal law, the time, place and manner such violation 27 occurred.

28 2. Discovery by the prosecution. The prosecutor shall make a dili-29 gent, good faith effort to ascertain the existence of material or infor-30 mation discoverable under subdivision one of this section and to cause 31 such material or information to be made available for discovery where 32 it exists but is not within the prosecutor's possession, custody or 33 control; provided that the prosecutor shall not be required to obtain by 34 subpoena duces tecum material or information which the defendant may 35 thereby obtain. This provision shall not require the prosecutor to 36 ascertain the existence of witnesses not known to police or another law 37 enforcement agency, or the written or recorded statements thereof, under 38 paragraph (c) or (e) of subdivision one of this section.

39 3. Supplemental discovery for the defendant. The prosecution shall 40 disclose to the defendant a list of all misconduct and criminal acts of 41 the defendant not charged in the indictment, superior court information, 42 prosecutor's information, information, or simplified information, which 43 the prosecution intends to use at trial for purposes of (a) impeaching 44 the credibility of the defendant, or (b) as substantive proof of any 45 material issue in the case. In addition the prosecution shall designate 46 whether it intends to use each listed act for impeachment and/or as 47 substantive proof.

48 4. Reciprocal discovery for the prosecution. (a) The defendant shall, 49 subject to constitutional limitations, disclose to the prosecution, and 50 permit the prosecution to discover, inspect, copy or photograph, any 51 material and relevant evidence within the defendant's or counsel for the 52 defendant's possession or control that is discoverable under paragraphs 53 (f), (g), (h), (j), (l) and (o) of subdivision one of this section, 54 which the defendant intends to offer at trial or a pre-trial hearing, 55 and the names, addresses, birth dates, and all statements, written or 56 recorded or summarized in any writing or recording, of those persons

1 other than the defendant whom the defendant intends to call as witnesses 2 at trial or a pre-trial hearing.

3 (b) Disclosure of the name, address, birth date, and all statements, 4 written or recorded or summarized in any writing or recording, of a 5 person whom the defendant intends to call as a witness for the sole 6 purpose of impeaching a prosecution witness is not required until after 7 the prosecution witness has testified at trial.

8 (c) If in the exercise of reasonable diligence the reciprocally 9 discoverable information under paragraph (f) or (o) of subdivision one 10 of this section is unavailable for disclosure within the time period 11 specified in subdivision two of section 245.10 of this article, such 12 time period shall be stayed without need for a motion pursuant to subdi-13 vision two of section 245.70 of this article; but the disclosure shall 14 be made as soon as practicable and subject to the continuing duty to 15 disclose in section 245.60 of this article.

16 5. Stay of automatic discovery; remedies and sanctions. Section 245.10 17 and subdivisions one, two, three and four of this section shall have 18 the force and effect of a court order, and failure to provide discovery 19 pursuant to such section or subdivision may result in application of any 20 remedies or sanctions permitted for non-compliance with a court order 21 under section 245.80 of this article. However, if in the judgment of 22 either party good cause exists for declining to make any of the disclo-23 sures set forth above, such party may move for a protective order pursu-24 ant to section 245.70 of this article and production of the item shall 25 be stayed pending a ruling by the court. The opposing party shall be 26 notified in writing that information has not been disclosed under a 27 particular section. When some parts of material or information are 28 discoverable but in the judgment of a party good cause exists for 29 declining to disclose other parts, the discoverable parts shall be 30 disclosed and the disclosing party shall give notice in writing that 31 non-discoverable parts have been withheld.

32 6. Redactions permitted. Either party may redact social security 33 numbers and tax numbers from disclosures under this article.

34 § 245.25 Disclosure prior to guilty plea deadline.

35 1. Pre-indictment guilty pleas. Upon a felony complaint, where the 36 prosecution has made a pre-indictment guilty plea offer requiring a plea 37 to a crime, the defendant shall have the right upon timely request and 38 reasonable notice to the prosecution to inspect any available police or 39 other law enforcement agency report of a factual nature regarding the 40 arrest or investigation of the charges, and/or any designated and avail-41 able items or information that could be of material importance to the 42 decision on the guilty plea offer and would be discoverable prior to 43 trial under subdivision one of section 245.20 of this article. The pros-44 ecution shall disclose the requested and designated items or informa-45 tion, as well as any known information that tends to be exculpatory or 46 to support a defense to a charged offense, not less than three calendar 47 days prior to the expiration date of any guilty plea offer by the prose-48 cution or any deadline imposed by the court for acceptance of a negoti-49 ated guilty plea offer. If the prosecution does not comply with a prop-50 er request made pursuant to this subdivision, the court may take 51 appropriate action as necessary to address the non-compliance, including 52 allowing a guilty plea to the original guilty plea offer notwithstanding 53 other provisions of this chapter. The inspection rights under this 54 subdivision do not apply to items or information that are the subject of 55 a protective order under section 245.70 of this article; but if such 56 information tends to be exculpatory, the court shall reconsider the

1 protective order. The court may deny an inspection right under this 2 subdivision when a reasonable person in the defendant's position would 3 not consider the requested and designated item or information to be of 4 material importance to the decision on the guilty plea offer. A defend-
5 ant may waive his or her rights under this subdivision; but a guilty
6 plea offer may not be conditioned on such waiver.

7 2. Other guilty pleas. Upon an indictment, superior court information, 8 prosecutor's information, information, simplified information, or 9 misdemeanor complaint, where the prosecution has made a guilty plea 10 offer requiring a plea to a crime, the defendant shall have the right 11 upon timely request and reasonable notice to the prosecution to inspect 12 any available police or other law enforcement agency report of a factual 13 nature regarding the arrest or investigation of the charges, and/or any 14 designated and available items or information that could be of material 15 importance to the decision on the guilty plea offer and would be discov-16 erable prior to trial under subdivision one of section 245.20 of this 17 article. The prosecution shall disclose the requested and designated 18 items or information, as well as any known information that tends to be 19 exculpatory or to support a defense to a charged offense, not less than 20 seven calendar days prior to the expiration date of any guilty plea 21 offer by the prosecution or any deadline imposed by the court for a 22 guilty plea. If the prosecution does not comply with a proper request 23 made pursuant to this subdivision, the guilty plea offer may be deemed 24 available to the defendant until seven calendar days after the prose-25 cution has made the disclosure or the court may take other appropriate 26 action as necessary to address the non-compliance. The inspection rights 27 under this subdivision do not apply to items or information that are the 28 subject of a protective order under section 245.70 of this article; but 29 if such information tends to be exculpatory, the court shall reconsider 30 the protective order. The court may deny an inspection right under this 31 subdivision when a reasonable person in the defendant's position would 32 not consider the requested and designated item or information to be of 33 material importance to the decision on the guilty plea offer. A defend-
34 ant may waive his or her rights under this subdivision, but a guilty
35 plea offer may not be conditioned on such waiver.

36 § 245.30 Court orders for preservation, access or discovery.

37 1. Order to preserve evidence. At any time, a party may move for a 38 court order to any individual, agency or other entity in possession, 39 custody or control of items which relate to the subject matter of the 40 case or are otherwise relevant, requiring that such items be preserved 41 for a specified period of time. The court shall hear and rule upon such 42 motions expeditiously. The court may modify or vacate such an order 43 upon a showing that preservation of particular evidence will create 44 significant hardship, on condition that the probative value of that 45 evidence is preserved by a specified alternative means.

46 2. Order to grant access to premises. At any time, the defendant may 47 move for a court order to any individual, agency or other entity in 48 possession, custody or control of a crime scene or other premises that 49 relates to the subject matter of the case or is otherwise relevant, 50 requiring that counsel for the defendant be granted prompt and reason-51 able access to inspect, photograph or measure such crime scene or prem-52 ises, and that the condition of the crime scene or premises remain 53 unchanged in the interim. The court shall hear and rule upon such 54 motions expeditiously. The court may modify or vacate such an order 55 upon a showing that granting access to a particular crime scene or premises will create significant hardship, on condition that the probative value of such location is preserved by a specified alternative means.

3. Discretionary discovery by order of the court. The court in its discretion may, upon a showing by the defendant that the request is reasonable and that the defendant is unable without undue hardship to obtain the substantial equivalent by other means, order the prosecution, or any individual, agency or other entity subject to the jurisdiction of the court, to make available for disclosure to the defendant any material or information which potentially relates to the subject matter of the case and is reasonably likely to be material. A motion under this subdivision must be on notice to any person or entity affected by the order. The court may, upon request of any person or entity affected by the order, modify or vacate the order if compliance would be unreasonable or will create significant hardship. The court may permit a party seeking or opposing a discretionary order of discovery under this subdivision, or another affected person or entity, to submit papers or testify on the record ex parte or in camera. Any such papers and a transcript of such testimony may be sealed and shall constitute a part of the record on appeal.

§ 245.35 Court ordered procedures to facilitate compliance.

To facilitate compliance with this article, and to reduce or streamline litigation of any disputes about discovery, the court in its discretion may issue an order:

1. Requiring that the prosecutor and counsel for the defendant diligently confer to attempt to reach an accommodation as to any dispute concerning discovery prior to seeking a ruling from the court;

2. Requiring a discovery compliance conference at a specified time prior to trial between the prosecutor, counsel for all defendants, and the court or its staff;

3. Requiring the prosecution to file an additional certificate of compliance that states that the prosecutor and/or an appropriate named agent has made reasonable inquiries of all police officers and other persons who have participated in investigating or evaluating the case about the existence of any favorable evidence or information within paragraph (k) of subdivision one of section 245.20 of this article, including such evidence or information that was not reduced to writing or otherwise memorialized or preserved as evidence, and has disclosed any such information to the defendant; and/or

4. Requiring other measures or proceedings designed to carry into effect the goals of this article.

§ 245.40 Non-testimonial evidence from the defendant.

1. Availability. After the filing of an accusatory instrument, and subject to constitutional limitations, the court may, upon motion of the prosecution showing probable cause to believe the defendant has committed the crime, a clear indication that relevant material evidence will be found, and that the method used to secure such evidence is safe and reliable, require a defendant to provide non-testimonial evidence, including to:

(a) Appear in a lineup;

(b) Speak for identification by a witness or potential witness;

(c) Be fingerprinted;

(d) Pose for photographs not involving reenactment of an event;

(e) Permit the taking of samples of the defendant's blood, hair, and other materials of the defendant's body that involves no unreasonable intrusion thereof;

(f) Provide specimens of the defendant's handwriting; and

1 (g) Submit to a reasonable physical or medical inspection of the 2 defendant's body.

3 2. Limitations. This section shall not be construed to alter or in any 4 way affect the issuance of a similar court order, as may be authorized 5 by law, before the filing of an accusatory instrument, consistent with 6 such rights as the defendant may derive from the state constitution or 7 the United States constitution. This section shall not be construed to 8 alter or in any way affect the administration of a chemical test where 9 otherwise authorized. An order pursuant to this section may be denied, 10 limited or conditioned as provided in section 245.70 of this article.

11 § 245.45 DNA comparison order.

12 Where property in the prosecution's possession, custody, or control 13 consists of a deoxyribonucleic acid ("DNA") profile obtained from 14 probative biological material gathered in connection with the investi-15 gation of the crime, or the defendant, or the prosecution of the defend-16 ant, and the defendant establishes (a) that such profile complies with 17 federal bureau of investigation or state requirements, whichever are 18 applicable and as such requirements are applied to law enforcement agen-19 cies seeking a keyboard search or similar comparison, and (b) that the 20 data meets state DNA index system or national DNA index system criteria 21 as such criteria are applied to law enforcement agencies seeking such a 22 keyboard search or similar comparison, the court may, upon motion of a 23 defendant against whom an indictment, superior court information, 24 prosecutor's information, information, or simplified information is 25 pending, order an entity that has access to the combined DNA index
26 system or its successor system to compare such DNA profile against DNA 27 databanks by keyboard searches, or a similar method that does not 28 involve uploading, upon notice to both parties and the entity required 29 to perform the search, upon a showing by the defendant that such a 30 comparison is material to the presentation of his or her defense and 31 that the request is reasonable. For purposes of this section, a 32 "keyboard search" shall mean a search of a DNA profile against the 33 databank in which the profile that is searched is not uploaded to or 34 maintained in the databank.

35 § 245.50 Certificates of compliance.

36 1. By the prosecution. When the prosecution has provided the discovery 37 required by subdivision one of section 245.20 of this article, except 38 for any items or information that are the subject of an order pursuant 39 to section 245.70 of this article, it shall serve upon the defendant and 40 file with the court a certificate of compliance. The certificate of 41 compliance shall state that, after exercising due diligence and making 42 reasonable inquiries to ascertain the existence of material and infor-43 mation subject to discovery, the prosecutor has disclosed and made 44 available all known material and information subject to discovery. It 45 shall also identify the items provided. If additional discovery is 46 subsequently provided prior to trial pursuant to section 245.60 of this 47 article, a supplemental certificate shall be served upon the defendant 48 and filed with the court identifying the additional material and infor-
49 mation provided. No adverse consequence to the prosecution or the prose-50 cutor shall result from the filing of a certificate of compliance in 51 good faith; but the court may grant a remedy or sanction for a discov-52 ery violation as provided in section 245.80 of this article.

53 2. By the defendant. When the defendant has provided all discovery 54 required by subdivision four of section 245.20 of this article, except 55 for any items or information that are the subject of an order pursuant 56 to section 245.70 of this article, counsel for the defendant shall serve

1 upon the prosecution and file with the court a certificate of compli-
2 ance. The certificate shall state that, after exercising due diligence 3 and making reasonable inquiries to ascertain the existence of material 4 and information subject to discovery, counsel for the defendant has 5 disclosed and made available all known material and information subject 6 to discovery. It shall also identify the items provided. If additional 7 discovery is subsequently provided prior to trial pursuant to section 8 245.60 of this article, a supplemental certificate shall be served upon 9 the prosecution and filed with the court identifying the additional 10 material and information provided. No adverse consequence to the 11 defendant or counsel for the defendant shall result from the filing of a 12 certificate of compliance in good faith; but the court may grant a reme-13 dy or sanction for a discovery violation as provided in section 245.80 14 of this article.

15 § 245.55 Flow of information.

16 1. Sufficient communication for compliance. The district attorney and 17 the assistant responsible for the case, or, if the matter is not being 18 prosecuted by the district attorney, the prosecuting agency and its 19 assigned representative, shall endeavor to ensure that a flow of infor-20 mation is maintained between the police and other investigative person-21 nel and his or her office sufficient to place within his or her 22 possession or control all material and information pertinent to the 23 defendant and the offense or offenses charged, including, but not limit-24 ed to, any evidence or information discoverable under paragraph (k) of 25 subdivision one of section 245.20 of this article.

26 2. Provision of law enforcement agency files. Absent a court order or 27 clear security requirement, upon request by the prosecution, a New York 28 state law enforcement agency shall make available to the prosecution a 29 complete copy of its complete files related to the investigation of the 30 case or the prosecution of the defendant for compliance with this arti-31 cle.

32 3. 911 telephone call and police radio transmission electronic 33 recordings, police worn body camera recordings and other police 34 recordings. (a) Whenever an electronic recording of a 911 telephone 35 call or a police radio transmission or video or audio footage from a 36 police body-worn camera or other police recording was made or received 37 in connection with the investigation of an apparent criminal incident, 38 the arresting officer or lead detective shall expeditiously notify the 39 prosecution in writing upon the filing of an accusatory instrument of 40 the existence of all such known recordings. The prosecution shall expe-41 ditiously take whatever reasonable steps are necessary to ensure that 42 all known electronic recordings of 911 telephone calls, police radio 43 transmissions and video and audio footage and other police recordings 44 made or available in connection with the case are preserved throughout 45 the pendency of the case. Upon the defendant's timely request and desig-46 nation of a specific electronic recording of a 911 telephone call, the 47 prosecution shall also expeditiously take whatever reasonable steps are 48 necessary to ensure that it is preserved throughout the pendency of the 49 case.

50 (b) If the prosecution fails to disclose such an electronic recording 51 to the defendant pursuant to paragraph (e), (g) or (k) of subdivision 52 one of section 245.20 of this article due to a failure to comply with 53 this obligation by police officers or other law enforcement or prose-54 cution personnel, the court upon motion of the defendant shall impose an 55 appropriate remedy or sanction pursuant to section 245.80 of this arti-
56 cle.

1 § 245.60 Continuing duty to disclose.

2 If either the prosecution or the defendant subsequently learns of 3 additional material or information which it would have been under a duty 4 to disclose pursuant to any provisions of this article at the time of a 5 previous discovery obligation or discovery order, it shall expeditiously 6 notify the other party and disclose the additional material or informa-
7 tion as required for initial discovery under this article. This 8 provision also requires expeditious disclosure by the prosecution of 9 material or information that became relevant to the case or discoverable 10 based upon reciprocal discovery received from the defendant pursuant to 11 subdivision four of section 245.20 of this article.

12 § 245.65 Work product.

13 This article does not authorize discovery by a party of those portions 14 of records, reports, correspondence, memoranda, or internal documents of 15 the adverse party which are only the legal research, opinions, theories 16 or conclusions of the adverse party or its attorney or the attorney's 17 agents, or of statements of a defendant, written or recorded or summa-18 rized in any writing or recording, made to the attorney for the defend-19 ant or the attorney's agents.

20 § 245.70 Protective orders.

21 1. Any discovery subject to protective order. Upon a showing of good 22 cause by either party, the court may at any time order that discovery or 23 inspection of any kind of material or information under this article be 24 denied, restricted, conditioned or deferred, or make such other order as 25 is appropriate. The court may impose as a condition on discovery to a 26 defendant that the material or information to be discovered be available 27 only to counsel for the defendant; or, alternatively, that counsel for 28 the defendant, and persons employed by the attorney or appointed by the 29 court to assist in the preparation of a defendant's case, may not 30 disclose physical copies of the discoverable documents to a defendant or 31 to anyone else, provided that the prosecution affords the defendant 32 access to inspect redacted copies of the discoverable documents at a 33 supervised location that provides regular and reasonable hours for such 34 access, such as a prosecutor's office, police station, facility of 35 detention, or court. The court may permit a party seeking or opposing a 36 protective order under this section, or another affected person, to 37 submit papers or testify on the record ex parte or in camera. Any such 38 papers and a transcript of such testimony may be sealed and shall 39 constitute a part of the record on appeal. This section does not alter 40 the allocation of the burden of proof with regard to matters at issue, 41 including privilege.

42 2. Modification of time periods for discovery. Upon motion of a party 43 in an individual case, the court may alter the time periods for discov-44 ery imposed by this article upon a showing of good cause.

45 3. Prompt hearing. Upon request for a protective order, the court 46 shall conduct an appropriate hearing within three business days to 47 determine whether good cause has been shown and when practicable shall 48 render decision expeditiously. Any materials submitted and a transcript 49 of the proceeding may be sealed and shall constitute a part of the 50 record on appeal.

51 4. Showing of good cause. Good cause under this section may include:
52 constitutional rights or limitations; danger to the integrity of phys-53 ical evidence; a substantial risk of physical harm, intimidation, 54 economic reprisal, bribery or unjustified annoyance or embarrassment to 55 any person; a substantial risk of an adverse effect upon the legitimate 56 needs of law enforcement, including the protection of the confidential-

1 ity of informants; danger to any person stemming from factors such as a 2 defendant's gang affiliation, prior history of interfering with 3 witnesses, or threats or intimidating actions directed at potential 4 witnesses; or other similar factors that also outweigh the usefulness 5 of the discovery.

6 5. Successor counsel or pro se defendant. In cases in which the attor-7 ney-client relationship is terminated prior to trial for any reason, 8 any material or information disclosed subject to a condition that it be 9 available only to counsel for the defendant, or limited in dissemination 10 by protective order or otherwise, shall be provided only to successor 11 counsel for the defendant under the same condition or conditions or be 12 returned to the prosecution, unless the court rules otherwise for good 13 cause shown or the prosecutor gives written consent. Any work product 14 derived from such material or information shall not be provided to the 15 defendant, unless the court rules otherwise or the prosecutor gives 16 written consent. If the defendant is acting as his or her own attorney, 17 the court may regulate the time, place and manner of access to any 18 discoverable material or information; and it may as appropriate appoint 19 persons to assist the defendant in the investigation or preparation of 20 the case. Upon motion or application of a defendant acting as his or her 21 own attorney, the court may at any time modify or vacate any condition 22 or restriction relating to access to discoverable material or informa-23 tion, for good cause shown.

24 6. Expedited review of adverse ruling. (a) A party that has unsucces-25 fully sought, or unsuccessfully opposed the granting of, a protective 26 order under this section relating to the name, address, contact informa-27 tion or statements of a person may obtain expedited review of that 28 ruling by an individual justice of the intermediate appellate court to 29 which an appeal from a judgment of conviction in the case would be 30 taken.

31 (b) Such review shall be sought within two business days of the 32 adverse or partially adverse ruling, by order to show cause filed with 33 the intermediate appellate court. The order to show cause shall in addi-34 tion be timely served on the lower court and on the opposing party, and 35 shall be accompanied by a sworn affirmation stating in good faith (i) 36 that the ruling affects substantial interests, and (ii) that diligent 37 efforts to reach an accommodation of the underlying discovery dispute 38 with opposing counsel failed or that no accommodation was feasible; 39 except that service on the opposing party, and a statement regarding 40 efforts to reach an accommodation, are unnecessary where the opposing 41 party was not made aware of the application for a protective order and 42 good cause exists for omitting service of the order to show cause on the 43 opposing party. The lower court's order subject to review shall be 44 stayed until the appellate justice renders decision.

45 (c) The assignment of the individual appellate justice, and the mode 46 of and procedure for the review, are determined by rules of the individ-
47 ual appellate courts. The appellate justice may consider any relevant 48 and reliable information bearing on the issue, and may dispense with 49 written briefs other than supporting and opposing materials previously 50 submitted to the lower court. The appellate justice may dispense with 51 the issuance of a written opinion in rendering his or her decision, and 52 when practicable shall render decision expeditiously. Such review and 53 decision shall not affect the right of a defendant, in a subsequent 54 appeal from a judgment of conviction, to claim as error the ruling 55 reviewed.

1 7. Compliance with protective order. Any protective order issued under 2 this article is a mandate of the court for purposes of the offense of 3 criminal contempt in subdivision three of section 215.50 of the penal 4 law.

5 § 245.75 Waiver of discovery by defendant.

6 A defendant who does not seek discovery from the prosecution under 7 this article shall so notify the prosecution and the court at the 8 defendant's arraignment on an indictment, superior court information, 9 prosecutor's information, information, or simplified information, or 10 expeditiously thereafter but before receiving discovery from the prose-11 cution pursuant to subdivision one of section 245.20 of this article, 12 and the defendant need not provide discovery to the prosecution pursuant 13 to subdivision four of section 245.20 and section 245.60 of this arti-
14 cle. A waiver shall be in writing and signed by the defendant and coun-
15 sel for the defendant. Such a waiver does not alter or in any way 16 affect the procedures, obligations or rights set forth in sections 17 250.10, 250.20 and 250.30 of this title, or otherwise established or 18 required by law. The prosecution may not condition a guilty plea offer 19 on the defendant's execution of a waiver under this section.

20 § 245.80 Remedies or sanctions for non-compliance.

21 1. Need for remedy or sanction. (a) When material or information is 22 discoverable under this article but is disclosed belatedly, the court 23 shall impose an appropriate remedy or sanction if the party entitled to 24 disclosure shows that it was prejudiced. Regardless of a showing of 25 prejudice the party entitled to disclosure shall be given reasonable 26 time to prepare and respond to the new material.

27 (b) When material or information is discoverable under this article 28 but cannot be disclosed because it has been lost or destroyed, the court 29 shall impose an appropriate remedy or sanction if the party entitled to 30 disclosure shows that the lost or destroyed material may have contained 31 some information relevant to a contested issue. The appropriate remedy 32 or sanction is that which is proportionate to the potential ways in 33 which the lost or destroyed material reasonably could have been helpful 34 to the party entitled to disclosure.

35 2. Available remedies or sanctions. For failure to comply with any 36 discovery order imposed or issued pursuant to this article, the court 37 may make a further order for discovery, grant a continuance, order that 38 a hearing be reopened, order that a witness be called or recalled, 39 instruct the jury that it may draw an adverse inference regarding the 40 non-compliance, preclude or strike a witness's testimony or a portion of 41 a witness's testimony, admit or exclude evidence, order a mistrial, 42 order the dismissal of all or some of the charges, or make such other 43 order as it deems just under the circumstances; except that any sanction 44 against the defendant shall comport with the defendant's constitutional 45 right to present a defense, and precluding a defense witness from 46 testifying shall be permissible only upon a finding that the defendant's 47 failure to comply with the discovery obligation or order was willful 48 and motivated by a desire to obtain a tactical advantage.

49 3. Consequences of non-disclosure of statement of testifying prose-
50 cution witness. The failure of the prosecutor or any agent of the prose-51 cutor to disclose any written or recorded statement made by a prose-52 cution witness which relates to the subject matter of the witness's 53 testimony shall not constitute grounds for any court to order a new 54 pre-trial hearing or set aside a conviction, or reverse, modify or 55 vacate a judgment of conviction, in the absence of a showing by the 56 defendant that there is a reasonable possibility that the non-disclosure

1 materially contributed to the result of the trial or other proceeding;
2 provided, however, that nothing in this section shall affect or limit 3 any right the defendant may have to a reopened pre-trial hearing when 4 such statements were disclosed before the close of evidence at trial.
5 § 245.85 Admissibility of discovery.

6 The fact that a party has indicated during the discovery process an 7 intention to offer specified evidence or to call a specified witness is 8 not admissible in evidence or grounds for adverse comment at a hearing 9 or a trial.

10 § 3. Subdivision 3 of section 610.20 of the criminal procedure law is 11 amended and a new subdivision 4 is added to read as follows:

12 3. An attorney for a defendant in a criminal action or proceeding, as 13 an officer of a criminal court, may issue a subpoena of such court, 14 subscribed by himself, for the attendance in such court of any witness 15 whom the defendant is entitled to call in such action or proceeding. An 16 attorney for a defendant may not issue a subpoena duces tecum of the 17 court directed to any department, bureau or agency of the state or of a 18 political subdivision thereof, or to any officer or representative ther-19 eof, unless the subpoena is endorsed by the court and provides at least 20 three days for the production of the requested materials. In the case of 21 an emergency, the court may by order dispense with the three-day
22 production period. Such a subpoena duces tecum may be issued in behalf 23 of a defendant upon order of a court pursuant to the rules applicable to 24 civil cases as provided in section twenty-three hundred seven of the 25 civil practice law and rules.

26 4. The showing required to sustain any subpoena under this section is 27 that the testimony or evidence sought is reasonably likely to be rele-28 vant and material to the proceedings, and the subpoena is not overbroad 29 or unreasonably burdensome.

30 § 4. Section 65.20 of the criminal procedure law, as added by chapter 31 505 of the laws of 1985, subdivision 2 as added, the opening paragraph 32 of subdivision 10 as amended and subdivisions 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 33 11, 12 and 13 as renumbered by chapter 548 of the laws of 2007, subdivi-34 sion 7 and paragraph (k) of subdivision 10 as amended by chapter 320 of 35 the laws of 2006 and subdivisions 11 and 12 as amended by chapter 455 of 36 the laws of 1991, is amended to read as follows:

37 § 65.20 Closed-circuit television; procedure for application and grounds 38 for determination.

39 1. Prior to the commencement of a criminal proceeding; other than a 40 grand jury proceeding, either party may apply to the court for an order 41 declaring that a child witness is vulnerable.

42 2. A child witness should be declared vulnerable when the court, in 43 accordance with the provisions of this section, determines by clear and 44 convincing evidence that the child witness would suffer serious mental 45 or emotional harm that would substantially impair the child witness' 46 ability to communicate with the finder of fact without the use of live, 47 two-way closed-circuit television.

48 3. A motion pursuant to subdivision one of this section must be made 49 in writing at least eight days before the commencement of trial or other 50 criminal proceeding upon reasonable notice to the other party and with 51 an opportunity to be heard.

52 4. The motion papers must state the basis for the motion and must 53 contain sworn allegations of fact which, if true, would support a deter-
54 mination by the court that the child witness is vulnerable. Such allega-55 tions may be based upon the personal knowledge of the deponent or upon

1 information and belief, provided that, in the latter event, the sources 2 of such information and the grounds for such belief are stated.

3 5. The answering papers may admit or deny any of the alleged facts and 4 may, in addition, contain sworn allegations of fact relevant to the 5 motion, including the rights of the defendant, the need to protect the 6 child witness and the integrity of the truth-finding function of the 7 trier of fact.

8 6. Unless all material facts alleged in support of the motion made 9 pursuant to subdivision one of this section are conceded, the court 10 shall, in addition to examining the papers and hearing oral argument, 11 conduct an appropriate hearing for the purpose of making findings of 12 fact essential to the determination of the motion. Except as provided in 13 subdivision [~~six~~] seven of this section, it may subpoena or call and 14 examine witnesses, who must either testify under oath or be permitted to 15 give unsworn testimony pursuant to subdivision two of section 60.20 and 16 must authorize the attorneys for the parties to do the same.

17 7. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the child witness who 18 is alleged to be vulnerable may not be compelled to testify at such 19 hearing or to submit to any psychological or psychiatric examination.
20 The failure of the child witness to testify at such hearing shall not be 21 a ground for denying a motion made pursuant to subdivision one of this 22 section. Prior statements made by the child witness relating to any 23 allegations of conduct constituting an offense defined in article one 24 hundred thirty of the penal law or incest as defined in section 255.25, 25 255.26 or 255.27 of such law or to any allegation of words or conduct 26 constituting an attempt to prevent, impede or deter the child witness 27 from cooperating in the investigation or prosecution of the offense
28 shall be admissible at such hearing, provided, however, that a declara-29 tion that a child witness is vulnerable may not be based solely upon 30 such prior statements.

31 8. (a) Notwithstanding any of the provisions of article forty-five of 32 the civil practice law and rules, any physician, psychologist, nurse or 33 social worker who has treated a child witness may testify at a hearing 34 conducted pursuant to subdivision [~~five~~] six of this section concerning 35 the treatment of such child witness as such treatment relates to the 36 issue presented at the hearing, provided that any otherwise applicable 37 statutory privileges concerning communications between the child witness 38 and such physician, psychologist, nurse or social worker in connection 39 with such treatment shall not be deemed waived by such testimony alone, 40 except to the limited extent of permitting the court alone to examine in 41 camera reports, records or documents, if any, prepared by such physi-42 cian, psychologist, nurse or social worker. If upon such examination the 43 court determines that such reports, records or documents, or any one or 44 portion thereof, contain information material and relevant to the issue 45 of whether the child witness is a vulnerable child witness, the court 46 shall disclose such information to both the attorney for the defendant 47 and the district attorney.

48 (b) At any time after a motion has been made pursuant to subdivision 49 one of this section, upon the demand of the other party the moving party 50 must furnish the demanding party with a copy of any and all of such 51 records, reports or other documents in the possession of such other 52 party and must, in addition, supply the court with a copy of all such 53 reports, records or other documents which are the subject of the demand.
54 At any time after a demand has been made pursuant to this paragraph, the 55 moving party may demand that property of the same kind or character in 56 possession of the party that originally made such demand be furnished to

1 the moving party and, if so furnished, be supplied, in addition, to the 2 court.

3 9. (a) Prior to the commencement of the hearing conducted pursuant to 4 subdivision [~~five~~] six of this section, the district attorney shall, 5 subject to a protective order, comply with the provisions of paragraph 6 (c) of subdivision one of section [~~240.45~~] 245.20 of this chapter as 7 they concern any witness whom the district attorney intends to call at 8 the hearing and the child witness.

9 (b) Before a defendant calls a witness at such hearing, he or she 10 must, subject to a protective order, comply with the provisions of 11 subdivision [~~two~~] four of section [~~240.45~~] 245.20 of this chapter as 12 they concern all the witnesses the defendant intends to call at such 13 hearing.

14 10. The court may consider, in determining whether there are factors 15 which would cause the child witness to suffer serious mental or 16 emotional harm, a finding that any one or more of the following circum-17 stances have been established by clear and convincing evidence:

18 (a) The manner of the commission of the offense of which the defendant 19 is accused was particularly heinous or was characterized by aggravating 20 circumstances.

21 (b) The child witness is particularly young or otherwise particularly 22 subject to psychological harm on account of a physical or mental condi-23 tion which existed before the alleged commission of the offense.

24 (c) At the time of the alleged offense, the defendant occupied a posi-25 tion of authority with respect to the child witness.

26 (d) The offense or offenses charged were part of an ongoing course of 27 conduct committed by the defendant against the child witness over an 28 extended period of time.

29 (e) A deadly weapon or dangerous instrument was allegedly used during 30 the commission of the crime.

31 (f) The defendant has inflicted serious physical injury upon the child 32 witness.

33 (g) A threat, express or implied, of physical violence to the child 34 witness or a third person if the child witness were to report the inci-35 dent to any person or communicate information to or cooperate with a 36 court, grand jury, prosecutor, police officer or peace officer concern-37 ing the incident has been made by or on behalf of the defendant.

38 (h) A threat, express or implied, of the incarceration of a parent or 39 guardian of the child witness, the removal of the child witness from the 40 family or the dissolution of the family of the child witness if the 41 child witness were to report the incident to any person or communicate 42 information to or cooperate with a court, grand jury, prosecutor, police 43 officer or peace officer concerning the incident has been made by or on 44 behalf of the defendant.

45 (i) A witness other than the child witness has received a threat of 46 physical violence directed at such witness or to a third person by or on 47 behalf of the defendant.

48 (j) The defendant, at the time of the inquiry, (i) is living in the 49 same household with the child witness, (ii) has ready access to the 50 child witness or (iii) is providing substantial financial support for 51 the child witness.

52 (k) The child witness has previously been the victim of an offense 53 defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law or incest as 54 defined in section 255.25, 255.26 or 255.27 of such law.

1 (1) According to expert testimony, the child witness would be partic-2 ularly [~~susceptible~~] susceptible to psychological harm if required to 3 testify in open court or in the physical presence of the defendant.

4 11. Irrespective of whether a motion was made pursuant to subdivision 5 one of this section, the court, at the request of either party or on its 6 own motion, may decide that a child witness may be vulnerable based on 7 its own observations that a child witness who has been called to testify 8 at a criminal proceeding is suffering severe mental or emotional harm 9 and therefore is physically or mentally unable to testify or to continue 10 to testify in open court or in the physical presence of the defendant 11 and that the use of live, two-way closed-circuit television is necessary 12 to enable the child witness to testify. If the court so decides, it must 13 conduct the same hearing that subdivision [~~five~~] six of this section 14 requires when a motion is made pursuant to subdivision one of this 15 section, and it must make findings of fact pursuant to subdivisions 16 [~~nine~~] ten and [~~eleven~~] twelve of this section, before determining that 17 the child witness is vulnerable.

18 12. In deciding whether a child witness is vulnerable, the court shall 19 make findings of fact which reflect the causal relationship between the 20 existence of any one or more of the factors set forth in subdivision 21 [~~nine~~] ten of this section or other relevant factors which the court 22 finds are established and the determination that the child witness is 23 vulnerable. If the court is satisfied that the child witness is vulner-24 able and that, under the facts and circumstances of the particular case, 25 the defendant's constitutional rights to an impartial jury or of 26 confrontation will not be impaired, it may enter an order granting the 27 application for the use of live, two-way closed-circuit television.

28 13. When the court has determined that a child witness is a vulnerable 29 child witness, it shall make a specific finding as to whether placing 30 the defendant and the child witness in the same room during the testimo-31 ny of the child witness will contribute to the likelihood that the child 32 witness will suffer severe mental or emotional harm. If the court finds 33 that placing the defendant and the child witness in the same room during 34 the testimony of the child witness will contribute to the likelihood 35 that the child witness will suffer severe mental or emotional harm, the 36 order entered pursuant to subdivision [~~eleven~~] twelve of this section 37 shall direct that the defendant remain in the courtroom during the 38 testimony of the vulnerable child witness.

39 § 5. Subdivision 5 of section 200.95 of the criminal procedure law, as 40 added by chapter 558 of the laws of 1982, is amended to read as follows:

41 5. Court ordered bill of particulars. Where a prosecutor has timely 42 served a written refusal pursuant to subdivision four of this section 43 and upon motion, made in writing, of a defendant, who has made a request 44 for a bill of particulars and whose request has not been complied with 45 in whole or in part, the court must, to the extent a protective order is 46 not warranted, order the prosecutor to comply with the request if it is 47 satisfied that the items of factual information requested are authorized 48 to be included in a bill of particulars, and that such information is 49 necessary to enable the defendant adequately to prepare or conduct his 50 defense and, if the request was untimely, a finding of good cause for 51 the delay. Where a prosecutor has not timely served a written refusal 52 pursuant to subdivision four of this section the court must, unless it 53 is satisfied that the people have shown good cause why such an order 54 should not be issued, issue an order requiring the prosecutor to comply 55 or providing for any other order authorized by [~~subdivision one of~~ 56 ~~section 240.70~~] section 245.80 of this part.

In an action in which either (a) material or information has been disclosed pursuant to paragraph (m) or (n) of subdivision one of section 245.20, (b) an eavesdropping warrant and application have been furnished pursuant to section 700.70, or (c) a notice of intention to introduce evidence has been served pursuant to section 710.30, such period shall be extended until forty-five days after the last date of such service. If the defendant is not represented by counsel and has requested an adjournment to obtain counsel or to have counsel assigned, such forty-five day period shall commence on the date counsel initially appears on defendant's behalf.

§ 8. Section 340.30 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read as follows:

(c) If, after complying with the provisions of this section or an order pursuant thereto, a party finds either before or during a sentencing proceeding or mental retardation hearing, additional material subject to discovery or covered by court order, the party shall promptly make disclosure or apply for a protective order.

The court shall deny or limit such a request upon a finding that such a request, if granted, would threaten the integrity or chain of custody of property or the integrity of the processes or functions of a laboratory conducting DNA testing, pose a risk of harm, intimidation, embarrassment, reprisal, or other substantially negative consequences to any person, undermine the proper functions of law enforcement including the confidentiality of informants, or on the basis of any other factor identified by the court in the interests of justice or public safety. The court shall further ensure that any property produced pursuant to this paragraph is subject to a protective order, where appropriate. The court shall deny any request made pursuant to this paragraph where:

§ 11. Subdivision 10 of section 450.10 of the penal law, as added by chapter 795 of the laws of 1984, is amended to read as follows:

Where there has been a failure to comply with the provisions of this section, and where the district attorney does not demonstrate to the satisfaction of the court that such failure has not caused the defendant prejudice, the court shall instruct the jury that it may consider such failure in determining the weight to be given such evidence and may also impose any other sanction set forth in subdivision one of section ~~[240.70]~~ 245.80 of the criminal procedure law; provided, however, that unless the defendant has convinced the court that such failure has caused him undue prejudice, the court shall not preclude the district attorney from introducing into evidence the property, photographs, photocopies, or other reproductions of the property or, where appropriate, testimony concerning its value and condition, where such evidence is otherwise properly authenticated and admissible under the rules of evidence. Failure to comply with any one or more of the provisions of this section shall not for that reason alone be grounds for dismissal of the accusatory instrument.

The court may issue

1 a protective order denying, limiting, conditioning, delaying or regulat-2 ing such discovery where a danger to the integrity of physical evidence 3 or a substantial risk of physical harm, intimidation, economic reprisal, 4 bribery or unjustified annoyance or embarrassment to any person or an 5 adverse effect upon the legitimate needs of law enforcement, including 6 the protection of the confidentiality of informants, or any other factor 7 or set of factors outweighs the usefulness of the discovery.

9 chapter 655 of the laws of 1990, is amended to read as follows:

16 with respect to a forfeiture proceeding brought pursuant to this arti-
17 cle. Such material shall include those portions of the grand jury 18 minutes and such other information which pertain solely to the special 19 forfeiture information and shall not include information which pertains 20 to the criminal charges. Upon application of the prosecutor, the court 21 may issue a protective order pursuant to section [~~240.40~~ 245.70] of the 22 criminal procedure law with respect to any information required to be 23 disclosed pursuant to this subdivision.

24 § 14. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 25 have become a law; provided, however, the amendments to section 65.20 of
