AN ACT to amend the general obligations law, in relation to the liability of persons involved in equine activities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Legislative intent. The legislature hereby finds that 2 horseback riding is both a major recreational sport and a major industry
3 within the state of New York. The legislature further finds: (1) that 4 horseback riding, like many other sports, contains inherent risks
5 including, but not limited to, the risks of personal injury, death or 6 property damage, which may be caused by the propensity of equines to 7 behave in ways that are not always controllable by the participant; the 8 unpredictability of an equine's reaction to such things as sounds, 9 sudden movements, and unfamiliar objects, persons or other animals;
10 surface or subsurface conditions; collisions with other equines or 11 objects; and the potential of a participant to act in a negligent
12 manner; (2) that it is appropriate, as well as in the public interest, 13 to establish certain duties and obligations of equine sponsors and 14 equine professionals relative to the safety of the horseback riding 15 public; and (3) that it is also necessary and appropriate that the 16 public become apprised of and understand the risks inherent in the sport 17 of horseback riding so that they may make an informed decision of whether 18 or not to participate in horseback riding notwithstanding the risks.
19 Therefore, the purpose and intent of this act is to establish guidelines
20 for the conduct of the participants, sponsors and professionals involved
