AN ACT to amend the alcoholic beverage control law, in relation to authorizing courts to render default judgments in cases of failure to answer for unlawful possession of an alcoholic beverage with the intent to consume by persons under the age of twenty-one years

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 65-c of the alcoholic beverage control law is 1 2 amended by adding three new subdivisions 7, 8 and 9 to read as follows: 3 7. In the event a person charged with a violation of this section does 4 not answer within the time specified, the court having jurisdiction, 5 other than a court in a city over one million population may, in addition to any other action authorized by law, enter a plea of guilty on 6 7 behalf of the defendant and render a default judgment of a fine deter-8 mined by the court within the amount authorized by law. Any judgment entered pursuant to default shall be civil in nature, and shall be 9 10 treated as a determination sustaining such charge for the purposes of 11 this section. However, at least thirty days after the expiration of the 12 original date prescribed for entering a plea and before a plea of guilty and a default judgment may be rendered, the clerk of the court shall 13 notify the defendant by certified mail: (a) of the violation charged; 14 15 (b) of the impending plea of guilty and default judgment; (c) that such 16 judgment will be filed with the county clerk of the county in which the 17 operator or registrant is located; and (d) that a default or plea of 18 guilty may be avoided by entering a plea or making an appearance within 19 thirty days of the sending of such notice. Pleas entered within that 20 period shall be in a manner prescribed in the notice. In no case shall a default judgment and plea of guilty be rendered more than two years 1 after the expiration of the time prescribed for originally entering a 2 plea. When a person has entered a plea of not guilty and has demanded a 3 hearing, no fine or penalty shall be imposed for any reason, prior to 4 5 the holding of the hearing which shall be scheduled by the court of such б city, village or town within thirty days of such demand. 7 8. The filing of the default judgment with the county clerk shall have 8 the full force and effect of a judgment duly docketed in the office of 9 such clerk and may be enforced in the same manner and with the same 10 effect as that provided by law in respect to executions issued against property upon judgments of a court of record and such judgment shall 11 remain in full force and effect for eight years notwithstanding any 12 13 other provision of law. 14 9. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision seven of this section, the clerk of the court, shall have two years from the effective 15 16 date of this subdivision to serve notice upon the person charged with a 17 violation of this section who has not answered within the time specified

- 18 and prior to the effective date of this subdivision.
- 19 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
