Introduced by M. of A. SEPULVEDA -- read once and referred to the Committee on Agriculture

AN ACT to amend the agriculture and markets law, in relation to dangerous dogs

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 1, paragraph (c) of subdivision 3, and subdivision 6 of section 123 of the agriculture and markets law, subdivision 1 as amended and such section as renumbered by section 18 of part T of chapter 59 of the laws of 2010, paragraph (c) of subdivision 3 as added and subdivision 6 as amended by chapter 392 of the laws of 2004, are amended to read as follows:

1. Any person who witnesses an attack or threatened attack, or in the case of a minor, an adult acting on behalf of such minor, may make a complaint of an attack or threatened attack upon a person, companion animal as defined in section three hundred fifty of this chapter, farm animal as defined in such section three hundred fifty, or a domestic animal as defined in subdivision seven of section one hundred eight of this article to a dog control officer or police officer of the appropriate municipality. Such officer shall:

(a) immediately inform the complainant of his or her right to commence a proceeding as provided in subdivision two of this section; and[~~,~~]

(b) determine if there is reason to believe that the dog is a dangerous dog[~~,~~] before leaving the scene. If the officer determines that there is a reason to believe the dog is a dangerous dog, the officer shall forthwith commence such proceeding himself or herself. When making such a determination, the officer shall articulate whether he or she believes that the dog (i) attacked or threatened to attack the person, companion animal or domestic animal without justification, or (ii) behaves in a manner which a reasonable person would believe poses a serious and unjustified imminent threat of serious physical injury or
