AN ACT to amend the agriculture and markets law, in relation to the sale of dietary or nutritional supplements

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 214-m of the agriculture and markets law, as 2 amended by chapter 159 of the laws of 1994, is amended to read as 3 follows:

4 § 214-m. Labeling of certain food products. 1. If any person, firm, 5 corporation, partnership, association or any other business association which processes, manufactures or imports food products has placed upon б 7 or accompanying the shipping container, shipping case, pallet or invoice 8 of such food products, any information, whether in coded form or otherwise, which specifies the expiration, "use by" date or similar date; or 9 the lot, batch, date of manufacture or processing or other information 10 11 regarding the identity of the food product; it shall be unlawful to 12 willfully alter, mutilate, destroy, obliterate or remove such informa-13 tion other than in connection with the destruction of the entire ship-14 ping container, shipping case, pallet or invoice. The provisions of this 15 section and any regulations promulgated hereunder shall not be deemed to require any manufacturer, processor or importer of food products to so 16 label any food product prior to distribution in the state or to prevent 17 a manufacturer, processor or importer of food products from correcting 18 or causing to be corrected any of the information accompanying the ship-19 ping container, shipping case, pallet or invoice. The provisions of this 20 21 section shall not affect any provision of federal, state or local law, 22 ordinance, rule or regulation regarding the placing of an expiration or 23 "use by" date on the retail container of any food product.

24 2. No person shall manufacture, sell or expose for sale any product 25 which shall be termed as a dietary supplement or nutritional supplement
