Introduced by M. of A. O'DONNELL -- Multi-Sponsored by -- M. of A. GLICK -- read once and referred to the Committee on Housing

AN ACT to amend the private housing finance law, in relation to rent regulation after dissolution of a limited-profit housing company

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The private housing finance law is amended by adding a new section 35-a to read as follows:

§ 35-a. Rent following dissolution. 1. As used in this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Affected development" shall mean housing accommodations that (i) are located in a city with a population of one million or more; and (ii) prior to the dissolution date were operated as a rental development pursuant to this article.

(b) "Affected dwelling unit" shall mean a housing unit in an affected development.

(c) "Affected housing company" shall mean a limited-profit housing company with an affected development.

(d) "Dissolution date" shall mean, with respect to any affected development, the date of dissolution or reconstitution of the affected housing company with such affected development pursuant to section thirty-five of this article.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general, special or local law, (a) upon dissolution, the affected development shall be subject to the rent stabilization laws under the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four; (b) the initial legal regulated rent for any affected dwelling unit on and after the dissolution date shall be the last rent authorized for the affected dwelling unit before the dissolution date, including rental surcharges, if any; and (c) such legal regulated rent shall not at any time be subject to adjustment pursuant
