Judiciary

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION OF THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY

proposing amendments to article 6 of the constitution, in relation to the manner of selecting judges and justices of the unified court system, and to repeal section 21 of article 6 thereof relating thereto

1 Section 1. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That subdivision c of 2 section 4 of article 6 of the constitution be amended to read as 3 follows:

4 c. The governor shall designate the presiding justice of each appel-5 late division, who shall act as such during his or her term of office 6 and shall be a resident of the department. The other justices of the 7 appellate divisions shall be designated by the governor, from all the 8 justices [~~elected to~~ of the supreme court, other than those serving by 9 interim appointment pursuant to section twenty-one of this article for 10 terms of five years or the unexpired portions of their respective terms 11 of office, if less than five years.

12 § 2. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That subdivisions b and c of 13 section 6 of article 6 of the constitution be amended to read as 14 follows:

15 b. Once every ten years the legislature may increase or decrease the 16 number of judicial districts or alter the composition of judicial 17 districts and thereupon re-apportion the justices to be thereafter 18 [~~elected~~ selected in the judicial districts so altered. Each judicial 19 district shall be bounded by county lines.

20 c. [~~The justices of the supreme court shall be chosen by the electors~~ 21 ~~of the judicial district in which they are to serve.~~] The terms of 22 justices of the supreme court shall be fourteen years [~~from and includ-~~
23 ~~ing the first day of January next after their election~~].

24 § 3. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That section 9 of article 6 of 25 the constitution be amended to read as follows:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD89088-01-7

1 § 9. The court of claims is continued. It shall consist of the eight 2 judges now authorized by law, but the legislature may increase such 3 number and may reduce such number to six or seven. The terms of the 4 judges shall be [~~appointed by the governor by and with the advice and~~ 5 ~~consent of the senate and their terms of office shall be~~] nine years.
6 The court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine claims against 7 the state or by the state against the claimant or between conflicting 8 claimants as the legislature may provide.

9 § 4. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That subdivisions a and b of 10 section 10 of article 6 of the constitution be amended to read as 11 follows:

12 a. The county court is continued in each county outside the city of 13 New York. There shall be at least one judge of the county court in each 14 county and such number of additional judges in each county as may be 15 provided by law. The judges shall be residents of the county [~~and shall~~ 16 ~~be chosen by the electors of the county~~].

17 b. The terms of the judges of the county court shall be ten years
18 [~~from and including the first day of January next after their election~~].

19 § 5. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That subdivisions b and c of 20 section 12 of article 6 of the constitution be amended to read as 21 follows:

22 b. The judges of the surrogate's court shall be residents of the coun-23 ty [~~and shall be chosen by the electors of the county~~].

24 c. The terms of the judges of the surrogate's court in the city of New 25 York shall be fourteen years, and in other counties ten years[~~, from and~~ 26 ~~including the first day of January next after their election~~].

27 § 6. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That subdivision a of section 13
28 of article 6 of the constitution be amended to read as follows:

29 a. The family court of the state of New York is hereby established. It 30 shall consist of at least one judge in each county outside the city of 31 New York and such number of additional judges for such counties as may 32 be provided by law. Within the city of New York it shall consist of such 33 number of judges as may be provided by law. The judges of the family 34 court within the city of New York shall be residents of such city and 35 [~~shall be appointed by the mayor of the city of New York for terms of~~ 36 ~~ten years. The~~] the judges of the family court outside the city of New 37 York[~~7~~] shall be [~~chosen by the electors of the counties wherein they~~ 38 ~~reside for~~] residents of the county. The terms of judges of the family 39 court shall be ten years.

40 § 7. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That subdivision a of section 15
41 of article 6 of the constitution be amended to read as follows:

42 a. The legislature shall by law establish a single court of city-wide 43 civil jurisdiction and a single court of city-wide criminal jurisdiction 44 in and for the city of New York and the legislature may, upon the 45 request of the mayor and the local legislative body of the city of New 46 York, merge the two courts into one city-wide court of both civil and 47 criminal jurisdiction. The said city-wide courts shall consist of such 48 number of judges as may be provided by law. The judges of the court of 49 city-wide civil jurisdiction and of the court of city-wide criminal 50 jurisdiction shall be residents of such city [~~and shall be chosen for~~ 51 ~~and their~~ terms [~~of~~] shall be ten years [~~by the electors of the counties~~
52 ~~included within the city of New York from districts within such counties~~
53 ~~established by law. The judges of the court of city-wide criminal juris-~~ 54 ~~isdiction shall be residents of such city and shall be appointed for terms~~ 55 ~~of ten years by the mayor of the city of New York~~].

1 § 8. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That subdivision h of section 16
2 of article 6 of the constitution be amended to read as follows:

3 h. The judges shall be residents of the district and [~~shall be chosen~~
4 ~~by the electors of the district. Their~~] their terms shall be six years
5 [~~from and including the first day of January next after their election~~].

6 § 9. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the opening paragraph of 7 subdivision b of section 20 of article 6 of the constitution be amended 8 to read as follows:

9 A judge of the court of appeals, justice of the supreme court, judge 10 of the court of claims, judge of a county court, judge of the surro-11 gate's court, judge of the family court or judge of a court for the city 12 of New York established pursuant to section fifteen of this article [~~who~~ 13 ~~is elected or appointed after the effective date of this article~~] may 14 not:

15 § 10. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That section 21 of article 6 of 16 the constitution be REPEALED and a new section 21 be added to read as 17 follows:

18 § 21. a. There shall be a judicial nominating commission for each 19 judicial district outside the city of New York to evaluate the qualifi-20 cations of candidates for appointment in such district to the offices of 21 judge or justice of the supreme court, the county court, the family 22 court, the surrogate's court, and, in each district in which the dis-23 trict court has been established, the district court. There shall be one 24 city-wide judicial nominating commission to evaluate the qualifications 25 of candidates for appointment in the city of New York to the offices of 26 judge or justice of the supreme court, the family court, the surrogate's 27 court, and the city-wide court or courts for such city established pur-28 suant to section fifteen of this article. There shall be one statewide 29 judicial nominating commission to evaluate the qualifications of candi-30 dates for appointment to the office of judge of the court of claims, and 31 for designation to the offices of presiding justice and justice of the 32 appellate division.

33 b. (1) Each such commission shall consist of thirteen at-large members 34 of whom four shall be appointed by the governor, three by the chief 35 judge of the court of appeals, one each by the temporary president of 36 the senate, the speaker of the assembly, the minority leader of the sen-37 ate and the minority leader of the assembly, and one by the president of 38 the New York state bar association. The chief administrator of the 39 courts shall be a member of the statewide judicial nominating commis-40 sion. Each commission, other than a statewide judicial nominating 41 commission, also shall include one at-large member appointed by the pre-42 siding justice of the appellate division of the department in which the 43 district is located and two regional members from each county in the 44 district appointed by the chief elected official of the county, except 45 that there shall be four regional members appointed from each county in 46 the city of New York, two of whom shall be appointed by the chief 47 elected official of such county and two of whom shall be appointed by 48 the mayor of such city. Regional members shall serve only when the 49 vacant office is to be filled by a resident of their county. To the 50 extent practicable, the members of each commission shall reflect diver-51 sity of race, gender, sexual orientation, ethnicity, geography and, 52 among those who are also members of the bar, various practice areas and 53 size of practice.

54 (2) Of the four members of each commission appointed by the governor, 55 not more than two shall be enrolled in the same political party and at 56 least two shall not be members of the bar of the state. Of the three

1 members appointed by the chief judge of the court of appeals, not more 2 than two shall be members of the bar of the state. The member appointed 3 by the presiding justice of the appellate division shall be a member of 4 the bar of the state. The two regional members from each county outside 5 the city of New York shall not be enrolled in the same political party 6 and one shall not be a member of the bar of the state. The two regional 7 members from each county in the city of New York appointed by the chief 8 elected official of each such county shall not be enrolled in the same 9 political party and one shall not be a member of the bar of the state,
10 and the two regional members from each county in the city of New York 11 appointed by the mayor of such city shall not be enrolled in the same 12 political party and one shall not be a member of the bar of the state.
13 Except for the chief administrator of the courts, no at-large or 14 regional member of any commission shall hold or have held any judicial 15 office or hold any elected public office for which he or she receives 16 compensation during his or her period of service, except that the gover-17 nor and chief judge may each appoint no more than one former judge or 18 justice of the unified court system to each commission. No at-large or 19 regional member of any commission shall hold office in any political 20 party, and, except for the chief administrator of the courts, no member 21 shall be eligible for appointment to judicial office in any court of the 22 state during the member's period of service or within one year thereaft-23 er.

24 (3) The members of each commission first appointed by the governor 25 shall have, respectively, one, two, three and four year terms as he or 26 she shall designate. The members first appointed by the chief judge of 27 the court of appeals shall have, respectively, two, three and four year 28 terms as he or she shall designate. The member first appointed by the 29 temporary president of the senate shall have a four year term. The mem-30 ber first appointed by the speaker of the assembly shall have a three 31 year term. The member first appointed by the minority leader of the sen-32 ate shall have a two year term. The member first appointed by the minor-33 ity leader of the assembly shall have a one year term. The members first 34 appointed by the presiding justice of the appellate division and the 35 president of the New York state bar association shall have four year 36 terms. The regional members first appointed from each county outside the 37 city of New York shall have, respectively, two and four year terms as 38 the person appointing them shall designate. The two regional members ap-39 pointed from each county within the city of New York by the chief 40 elected official of each county shall have, respectively, one and three 41 year terms as the person appointing them shall designate and the two 42 regional members appointed from each county within the city of New York 43 by the mayor of such city shall have, respectively, two and four year 44 terms as the mayor shall designate. Each subsequent appointment shall be 45 for a term of four years.

46 (4) The governor shall designate a chairperson for each commission 47 from among its at-large members.

48 (5) Each at-large member of each commission shall be a resident of, 49 have an office in or work in the judicial district in which he or she is 50 to serve, except that each at-large member of the city-wide commission 51 for the city of New York shall be a resident of, have an office in or 52 work in such city and each at-large member of the statewide commission 53 shall be a resident of the state.

54 c. (1) The statewide judicial nominating commission shall consider the 55 qualifications of all candidates for appointment to the office of judge 56 of the court of claims, and for designation to the offices of presiding

1 justice and justice of the appellate division; and each such other dis-2 trict commission shall consider the qualifications of candidates for ap-3 pointment outside the city of New York to the offices of judge or 4 justice of the supreme court, the county court, the family court, the 5 surrogate's court, and, in each district in which the district court has 6 been established, the district court. The city-wide commission for the 7 city of New York shall consider candidates for appointment within such 8 city to the offices of judge or justice of the supreme court, the family 9 court, the surrogate's court, and the city-wide court or courts for such 10 city established pursuant to section fifteen of this article. Whenever 11 one or more vacancies in such offices occur, the appropriate commission 12 shall prepare a written report and recommend to the appropriate appoint-13 ing authority persons who by their character, temperament, professional 14 aptitude and experience are well-qualified for that judicial office. To 15 the extent practicable, the nominees shall reflect diversity of race, 16 gender, sexual orientation, ethnicity, and geography, taking into 17 consideration the court to which they are being nominated and the 18 members with whom they might be serving.

19 (2) The legislature shall prescribe by law the organization and proce-20 dure of each commission, provided, however, that where there is one 21 vacancy to be filled, at least three persons and not more than five per-22 sons shall be recommended as provided herein; where there are two vacan-23 cies in the same judicial office, at least five persons and not more 24 than eight persons shall be recommended; and, where there are three or 25 more vacancies in the same judicial office, the number of persons recom-26 ended by the appropriate commission shall be at least two times the 27 number of vacancies and not more than three times the number of vacan-28 cies. Notwithstanding the foregoing, where a commission is unable to 29 recommend as well-qualified for a judicial office such number of per-30 sons as is prescribed herein, it shall recommend such lesser number of 31 persons who are well-qualified therefor. To the extent practicable, the 32 nominees shall reflect diversity of race, gender, sexual orientation, 33 ethnicity, and geography, taking into consideration the court to which 34 they are being nominated and the members with whom they might be serv-35 ing.

36 d. (1) From among those recommended by the appropriate commission as 37 provided in paragraph one of subdivision c of this section, the governor 38 shall appoint a person to fill a vacancy in the office of justice of the 39 supreme court and the office of judge of the court of claims, by and 40 with the advice and consent of the senate, and designate a person as 41 presiding justice or justice of the appellate division; the governor 42 shall, upon the nomination of the mayor of the city of New York, appoint 43 a person to fill a vacancy in the office within such city of judge of 44 the family court, the surrogate's court, and the city-wide court or 45 courts for such city established pursuant to section fifteen of this ar-46 ticle, by and with the advice and consent of the senate; and the gover-47 nor shall, upon the nomination of the chief elected official of a county 48 outside the city of New York in which a vacancy occurs in the office of 49 judge of the county court, the family court, the surrogate's court, or 50 the district court, appoint a person to fill such office, by and with 51 the advice and consent of the senate.

52 (2) In the case of each appointment that is subject to the advice and 53 consent of the senate, the governor shall transmit to the senate the 54 written report of the appropriate commission relating to the appointee.

55 e. When a vacancy occurs in a judicial office where appointment there-56 to is subject to the advice and consent of the senate and the senate is

1 not in session to give its advice and consent to an appointment to fill 2 the vacancy, the governor shall fill the vacancy by interim appointment
3 as provided in subdivision d of this section. An interim appointment 4 shall continue until the senate shall pass upon the selection. If the 5 senate confirms an appointment, the justice or judge shall serve the 6 full term provided for his or her office under this article, commencing 7 from the date of such interim appointment. If the senate rejects an 8 appointment, a vacancy in the office shall occur sixty days after such 9 rejection.

10 § 11. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That subdivision a of section 11 25 of article 6 of the constitution be amended to read as follows:

12 a. The compensation of a judge of the court of appeals, a justice of 13 the supreme court, a judge of the court of claims, a judge of the county 14 court, a judge of the surrogate's court, a judge of the family court, a 15 judge of a court for the city of New York established pursuant to 16 section fifteen of this article, a judge of the district court or of a 17 retired judge or justice shall be established by law and shall not be 18 diminished during [~~the~~] his or her term of office [~~for which he or she~~ 19 ~~was elected or appointed. Any judge or justice of a court abolished by~~ 20 ~~section thirty five of this article, who pursuant to that section~~ 21 ~~becomes a judge or justice of a court established or continued by this~~ 22 ~~article, shall receive without interruption or diminution for the~~ 23 ~~remainder of the term for which he or she was elected or appointed to~~ 24 ~~the abolished court the compensation he or she had been receiving upon~~ 25 ~~the effective date of this article together with any additional compen-~~ 26 ~~sation that may be prescribed by law].~~

27 § 12. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That article 6 of the constitu-28 tion be amended by adding a new section 36-d to read as follows:

29 § 36-d. a. The amendments to sections four, six, nine, ten, twelve, 30 thirteen, fifteen, sixteen, twenty and twenty-five of this article, the 31 repeal of section twenty-one, and the insertion of a new section twen-32 ty-one and this section, as first proposed by a concurrent resolution 33 passed by the legislature in the year two thousand seventeen, entitled 34 "CONCURRENT RESOLUTION OF THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY proposing amendments 35 to article 6 of the constitution, in relation to the manner of selecting 36 judges and justices of the unified court system, and to repeal section 37 21 of article 6 thereof relating thereto" shall become a part of the 38 constitution on the first day of January next after the approval and 39 ratification of the amendment proposed by such concurrent resolution by 40 the people, but the provisions thereof shall not become operative and 41 the repeal of section twenty-one of this article shall not become effec-42 tive until September first next thereafter which date shall be deemed 43 the effective date of these amendments.

44 b. Notwithstanding any other provision herein, the judges and justices 45 of the appellate division, the supreme court, the court of claims, the 46 county court, the family court, the surrogate's court, the city-wide 47 court or courts for the city of New York established pursuant to section 48 fifteen of this article, and the district court in office on the effec-49 tive date of this section shall hold their offices as judges and 50 justices of such courts until the expiration of their respective terms.

51 § 13. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the foregoing amendments 52 be referred to the first regular legislative session convening after the 53 next succeeding general election of members of the assembly, and, in 54 conformity with section 1 of article 19 of the constitution, be pu-55 blished for 3 months previous to the time of such election.
