Introduced by M. of A. WALTER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Aging

AN ACT to amend the elder law and the insurance law, in relation to long term care insurance education, premiums and prohibition of exclusions for pre-existing conditions

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 8 of section 203 of the elder law, as added by section 18 of part B of chapter 58 of the laws of 2007, is amended to 2 read as follows:

8. The director, in consultation with the commissioner of health, shall establish a program to be known as the NY Connects: Choices for Long Term Care. The purpose of this initiative is to provide consistent, comprehensive, locally-based information and assistance on long term care services to consumers, caregivers and families to help them make educated choices. This program shall provide individuals, caregivers, 10 and families with objective information and assistance about home, 11 community-based and institutional long term care services, as well as information about long term care insurance products and providers. NY 13 Connects will be available on a voluntary basis to consumers, caregivers 14 and their families. There shall be an on-going education and outreach campaign to educate the public about long term care services available in their community and to assist consumers in preparing for their long 16 term care needs.
