1 3. The division of state police, in conjunction with the department of 2 state shall administer this program and promulgate any rules and regu-3 lations the superintendent deems necessary for the implementation of 4 this program. Such rules may include:

5 (a) guidelines for an agency participating in the program to coordi-
6 nate with community groups within its jurisdiction. Such guidelines 7 shall include, but not be limited to:

8 (i) allowing individuals to anonymously report or turn in illegal
9 fully functioning guns and then collect a five hundred dollar reward;

10 (ii) all calls are anonymous and no arrest or conviction is required

12 (iii) individuals with information about the location of fully func-13 tioning illegal guns or who wish to turn in such firearms shall make two 14 phone calls to the anonymous tip hotline established by the agency.
15 During the initial phone conversation in which the caller provides 16 information about the illegal firearm, the caller receives a confiden-
17 tial identification number and is instructed to call back at a later
18 date. During the second phone call, the caller uses the identification 19 number to check whether an illegal firearm was recovered as a result of 20 the initial call and, if so, the caller is provided a second identifica-21 tion number and instructed to communicate with a specific bank to 22 collect the reward of five hundred dollars;

26 (c) guidelines for the safe storage and disposal of recovered
27 firearms, rifles, shotguns, or ammunition in the possession of the 28 participating agency, return of any recovered stolen property to its

32 or shotgun obtained by such gun buyback program against the New York
33 Statewide Police Information Network records.

34 4. Any person participating in a municipal gun tip hotline program 35 pursuant to this section shall be immune from criminal prosecution for 36 the criminal offenses established by sections 265.01, 265.02, 265.03, 37 and 265.05 of this chapter, provided the person is, in good faith,
38 acting to surrender a firearm through the program.

39 5. Any police agency shall be authorized to develop and implement its
