IN ASSEMBLY

February 3, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. DiPIETRO -- read once and referred to the Committee on Health

AN ACT to amend the social services law, in relation to imposing a one year residency requirement for eligibility for medical assistance

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 117 of the social services law is amended by adding
2 a new subdivision 4 to read as follows:

3 4. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of the foregoing subdivisions of this section or any other provision of law, for the purposes
4 of eligibility for medical assistance pursuant to title eleven of article five of this chapter or any successor provisions thereof, no person
5 shall be eligible therefor unless such person shall have been a resident
6 of this state for one year or more.
7

8 § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after 9 it shall have become a law. Effective immediately the commissioner of 10 health is authorized to promulgate any and all rules and regulations and 11 take any other measures necessary to implement this act on its effective
12 date on or before such date.
