1 1. The special proceeding prescribed by this article shall be 2 commenced by petition and a notice of petition prepared in accordance 3 with rules approved by the appellate division with jurisdiction over the 4 proceedings. Such rules shall provide for the use of language that is 5 designed to be understood by the respondent in the proceeding. The peti-6 tion shall include such other notice of the rights of the respondent as 7 may be deemed appropriate, including a statement that a form answer is 8 available from the clerk of the court. A notice of petition may be 9 issued only by an attorney, judge or the clerk of the court; it may not 10 be issued by a party prosecuting the proceeding in person.

11 § 4. Section 741 of the real property actions and proceedings law, as 12 added by chapter 312 of the laws of 1962, the opening paragraph as 13 amended by chapter 583 of the laws of 1979 and subdivision 5 as amended 14 by chapter 302 of the laws of 1976, is amended to read as follows:

15 § 741. Contents of petition. The petition shall be verified by the 16 person authorized by section seven hundred twenty-one of this article to 17 maintain the proceeding; or by a legal representative, attorney or agent 18 of such person pursuant to subdivision (d) of section [~~thirty hundred~~]
19 three thousand twenty of the civil practice law and rules. An attorney 20 of such person may verify the petition on information and belief 21 notwithstanding the fact that such person is in the county where the 22 attorney has his office. Every petition shall:

23 1. State the interest of the petitioner in the premises from which 24 removal is sought.

25 2. State the respondent's interest in the premises and his relation-26 ship to petitioner with regard thereto.

27 3. Describe the premises from which removal is sought.

28 4. State whether there are any violations of any state or local hous-
29 ing codes which remain outstanding on the premises or common areas. In 30 cities with a population of one million or more, or in any municipality 31 in which housing code violations are classified by degree of threat to 32 health and safety, the petition shall itemize any such violations which 33 have been identified by the applicable code enforcement agency in its 34 notice of violation as being "hazardous", "immediately hazardous" or 35 which have been otherwise categorized as constituting a serious, or 36 imminent, threat to health and safety or requiring immediate repair.

37 5. State whether the petitioner has been notified by the local depart-38 ment of social services that payment for rent is being withheld pursuant 39 to section one hundred forty-three-b of the social services law for any 40 portion of the premises.

41 6. With respect to premises subsidized directly or indirectly under a 42 state or federal program which requires that conditions be met in 43 connection with lease termination or eviction, state the name of the 44 program, the name of the agency charged with supervision and whether the 45 petitioner has complied with all applicable rules, regulations and 46 administrative hearing requirements and has served all notices required 47 in connection with lease termination or eviction from that public or 48 subsidized housing program.

49 7. State the facts upon which the special proceeding is based.

50 [~~5-~~] 8. State the relief sought. The relief may include a judgment 51 for rent due, and for a period of occupancy during which no rent is due, 52 for the fair value of use and occupancy of the premises if the notice of 53 petition contains a notice that a demand for such a judgment has been 54 made.

55 Any willful material misstatement or omission by the petitioner with 56 respect to the requirements of this section shall subject the petitioner

1 to a civil penalty, not to exceed one thousand dollars, to be assessed
2 in the eviction proceeding or in a subsequent plenary action. The peti-3 tioner may request leave of the court to amend the petition for the 4 purpose of correcting material misstatements or curing omissions. In the 5 event leave to amend is granted, the respondent shall be provided an 6 adjournment to respond of not less than ten days from the date of 7 service of the amended petition. A petitioner shall be deemed to have 8 made a material misstatement or omission with respect to the require-9 ments of subdivision four of this section upon submission to the court 10 of certified records, or otherwise properly authenticated records, of 11 the local agency or agencies charged with code compliance that 12 violations of applicable codes, other than tenant caused or housekeeping
13 as determined by the court, were outstanding at the time of the verifi-
14 cation of the petition which were not described therein. A material 15 misstatement shall be deemed willful unless the petitioner can establish 16 by a preponderance of the evidence that such misstatement was not will-17 ful. In addition to the foregoing, in the event that an eviction warrant 18 is executed in a proceeding in which a willful material misstatement is 19 made, the respondent shall be entitled to damages not exceeding three 20 times the costs incurred as a result of the eviction unless the peti-
21 tioner can establish that the eviction would have been justified regard-22 less of the misstatement.

32 clerk, by the presiding judge or justice of such court, and maintained
33 in the case record. A form answer, in a form approved by the appellate 34 division with jurisdiction over the proceeding, shall be made available 35 to the respondent by the clerk of the court. The form answer shall 36 include possible defenses to the proceeding, including but not limited

43 before the time the petition is noticed to be heard and, if in writing, 44 it shall be served within such time; whereupon any reply shall be served 45 at least one day before such time. The answer may contain any legal or 46 equitable defense, or counterclaim. The court may render affirmative 47 judgment for the amount found due on the counterclaim.

48 § 6. Subdivision 1 of section 745 of the real property actions and 49 proceedings law, as amended by chapter 403 of the laws of 1983, is 50 amended to read as follows:

52 the court unless, at the time the petition is noticed to be heard, a

54 When the petition indicates pursuant to subdivision four of section
55 seven hundred forty-one of this article, that there are outstanding code
56 violations, the court shall inquire regarding the duration and severity

1 of the outstanding violations and may stay the proceeding pending
2 removal of the violations in accordance with section seven hundred
3 fifty-five of this article, or make other disposition of the proceeding 4 including granting a total or partial abatement of rent, or dismissal of 5 the proceeding, as appropriate. At the time when issue is joined the 6 court, in its discretion at the request of either party and upon proof
7 to its satisfaction by affidavit or orally that an adjournment is neces-8 sary to enable the applicant to procure his necessary witnesses, or by 9 consent of all the parties who appear, may adjourn the trial of the 10 issue, but not more than ten days, except by consent of all parties.

21 of such offices. In a proceeding based upon non-payment, such notice
22 shall also advise the respondent of the rent determined due together 23 with taxes, assessments, interest, penalties and costs in accordance 24 with the provision of subdivision one of section seven hundred fifty-one 25 of this article, and shall advise the respondent of the amount required 26 and procedure for payment.

28 representative of the local department of social services that an appli-29 cation for assistance to prevent eviction is pending on behalf of the 30 respondent household, the officer shall refrain from execution of the 31 warrant until such time as that officer is advised by the social 32 services official of the determination of such application, provided, 33 however, that the social services district shall guarantee payment to 34 the petitioner for any additional rent accruing during this period to be 35 calculated on a pro-rata basis for the number of days delay occasioned 36 by the operation of this provision.
