IN ASSEMBLY

February 6, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. O'DONNELL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means

AN ACT to amend the state finance law, in relation to prohibiting the payment of any claim for travel to, from and/or within certain states that allow for profit businesses to assert a right of free exercise of religion

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 109 of the state finance law is amended by adding a new subdivision 2-a to read as follows:

2-a. The comptroller shall not draw his or her warrant for the payment of any claim or voucher submitted for any expense, including the payment of any per diem allowance, incurred for any travel to, from and/or within any state which, by law, authorizes for profit businesses to invoke the free exercise of religion as a defense to a cause of action commenced by an individual, group of individuals or non-governmental entity for wrongful discrimination. The prohibition established in this subdivision shall not apply to any travel which is necessary to enforce any provisions of law of this state, to comply with any contractual obligation of the state or to protect public safety.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
