(2) is reasonably anticipated to receive a total annual compensation package of one hundred thousand dollars or more from a broadcast industry employer that is licensed by the Federal Communications Commission in a city having a population of less than one million or is an entity with its principal place of business located in such a city.

- 2. [A] Subject to the provisions of subdivision three of this section, $\underline{\mathbf{a}}$ broadcasting industry employer shall not require as a condition of employment, whether in an employment contract or otherwise, that a broadcast employee or prospective broadcast employee refrain from obtaining employment:
 - (a) in any specified geographic area;
 - (b) for a specific period of time; or
- (c) with any particular employer or in any particular industry; after 13 14 the conclusion of employment with such broadcasting industry employer. 15 This section shall not apply to preventing the enforcement of such a 16 covenant during the term of an employment contract.
- The restrictions in the provisions of subdivision two of this 18 section shall not apply to employees whose services primarily include sales or management functions, or who are key employees.
- 20 4. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the enforcement 21 by a broadcasting industry employer of a post-contract (a) right of 22 first refusal/right to match provision, (b) exclusive negotiation provision, or (c) confidentiality/non-disclosure provision in any 23 24 employment contract.
- 25 5. Any person who violates this section shall be civilly liable to a 26 broadcast employee for damages, attorney's fees and costs.
- 27 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
