AN ACT to amend the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, and the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to penalties for owners of property who fail to file a proper or timely rent registration statement

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The opening paragraph of paragraph 1 of subdivision a of 2 section 12 of section 4 of chapter 576 of the laws of 1974, constituting 3 the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, as amended 4 by chapter 116 of the laws of 1997, is amended to read as follows:

5 Subject to the conditions and limitations of this paragraph, any owner 6 of housing accommodations in a city having a population of less than one 7 million or a town or village as to which an emergency has been declared 8 pursuant to section three, who, upon complaint of a tenant or of the 9 state division of housing and community renewal, is found by the state 10 division of housing and community renewal, after a reasonable opportunity 11 to be heard, to have collected an overcharge above the rent authorized 12 for a housing accommodation subject to this act shall be liable to 13 the tenant for a penalty equal to [~~three~~ at least three times the 14 amount, not to exceed five times the amount of such overcharge. In no 15 event shall such [~~treble-damage~~ a penalty be assessed against an owner 16 based solely on said owner's failure to file a proper or timely initial 17 or annual rent registration statement. If the owner establishes by a 18 preponderance of the evidence that the overcharge was neither willful

nor attributable to his negligence, the state division of housing and community renewal shall establish the penalty as the amount of the overcharge plus interest at the rate of interest payable on a judgment pursuant to section five thousand four of the civil practice law and rules. (i) Except as to complaints filed pursuant to clause (ii) of this paragraph, the legal regulated rent for purposes of determining an overcharge, shall be deemed to be the rent indicated in the annual registration statement filed four years prior to the most recent registration statement, (or, if more recently filed, the initial registration statement) plus in each case any subsequent lawful increases and adjustments. Where the amount of rent set forth in the annual rent registration statement filed four years prior to the most recent registration statement is not challenged within four years of its filing, neither such rent nor service of any registration shall be subject to challenge at any time thereafter. (ii) As to complaints filed within ninety days of the initial registration of a housing accommodation, the legal regulated rent for purposes of determining an overcharge shall be deemed to be the rent charged on the date four years prior to the date of the initial registration of the housing accommodation (or, if the housing accommodation was subject to this act for less than four years, the initial legal regulated rent) plus in each case, any lawful increases and adjustments. Where the rent charged on the date four years prior to the date of the initial registration of the accommodation cannot be established, such rent shall be established by the division. Where the amount of rent set forth in the annual rent registration statement filed four years prior to the most recent registration statement is not challenged within four years of its filing, neither such rent nor service of any registration shall be subject to challenge at any time thereafter.

§ 2. The opening paragraph of subdivision a of section 26-516 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as amended by chapter 116 of the laws of 1997, is amended to read as follows:

Subject to the conditions and limitations of this subdivision, any owner of housing accommodations who, upon complaint of a tenant, or of the state division of housing and community renewal, is found by the state division of housing and community renewal, after a reasonable opportunity to be heard, to have collected an overcharge above the rent authorized for a housing accommodation subject to this chapter shall be liable to the tenant for a penalty equal to ~~[three]~~ at least three times the amount, not to exceed five times the amount of such overcharge. In no event shall such ~~[treble damage]~~ a penalty be assessed against an owner based solely on said owner's failure to file a timely or proper initial or annual rent registration statement. If the owner establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that the overcharge was not willful, the state division of housing and community renewal shall establish the penalty as the amount of the overcharge plus interest. (i) Except as to complaints filed pursuant to clause (ii) of this paragraph, the legal regulated rent for purposes of determining an overcharge, shall be the rent indicated in the annual registration statement filed four years prior to the most recent registration statement, (or, if more recently filed, the initial registration statement) plus in each case any subsequent lawful increases and adjustments. Where the amount of rent set forth in the annual rent registration statement filed four years prior to the most recent registration statement is not challenged within four years of its filing, neither such rent nor service of any registration shall be subject to challenge at any time thereafter. (ii) As to complaints filed within ninety days of the initial registration of a

1 housing accommodation, the legal regulated rent shall be deemed to be 2 the rent charged on the date four years prior to the date of the initial 3 registration of the housing accommodation (or, if the housing accommo-4 dation was subject to this chapter for less than four years, the initial 5 legal regulated rent) plus in each case, any lawful increases and 6 adjustments. Where the rent charged on the date four years prior to the 7 date of the initial registration of the accommodation cannot be estab-
8 lished, such rent shall be established by the division.

9 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately; provided that

10 a. the amendments to the opening paragraph of paragraph 1 of subdivi-11 sion a of section 12 of the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen 12 seventy-four made by section one of this act shall expire on the same 13 date as such act expires and shall not affect the expiration of such act 14 as provided in section 17 of chapter 567 of the laws of 1974; and

15 b. the amendments to section 26-516 of chapter 4 of title 26 of the 16 administrative code of the city of New York made by section two of this 17 act shall expire on the same date as such law expires and shall not 18 affect the expiration of such law as provided under section 26-520 of 19 such law.
