§ 391-u. Sale of certain video games to minors prohibited. 1. No 4 person, partnership or corporation shall sell or rent or offer to sell 5 or rent to any person under the age of eighteen years any video game that has a mature or violent rating. Such videos may contain, but shall not be limited to, depictions descriptive of, advocating or glamorizing commission of a violent crime, suicide, sodomy, rape, incest, bestiality, sadomasochism, any form of sexual activity in a violent context, or advocating or encouraging murder, violent racism, religious violence, morbid violence or the illegal use of drugs or alcohol.

- 2. Every person, partnership or corporation engaged in the retail sale 13 or rental of video games shall store and display such video games containing contents listed in subdivision one of this section in a location designated for persons over the age of eighteen, in a manner which restricts access to such video games.
- 17 3. Sale or rental of any video game that contains any contents listed in subdivision one of this section, shall be made only to an individual 18 19 who demonstrates, through (a) a valid driver's license or non-driver's 20 identification and issued by the commissioner of motor vehicles, the federal government, any United States territory, commonwealth or 22 possession, the District of Columbia, a state government within the 23 United States or a provincial government of the dominion of Canada; or 24 (b) a valid passport issued by the United States government or any other 25 country; or (c) an identification card issued by the United States, indicating that the individual is at least eighteen years of age. Such identification need not be required of any individual who reasonably 3 appears to be at least thirty years of age, provided, however, that such appearance shall not constitute a defense in any proceeding involving sale or rental of any video game, to an individual under eighteen years of age.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

7 4. In any proceeding pursuant to this section, it shall be an affirma-8 tive defense that a person purchasing or renting or attempting to 9 purchase or rent any video game described in subdivision one of this 10 section produced a driver's license or a non-driver identification card 11 apparently issued by a government entity or other identification pursuant to subdivision three of this section, successfully completed the 12 transaction, and that the video game sold or rented to such person was 13 14 reasonable reliance upon such identification and transaction. In evalu-15 ating the applicability of such affirmative defense, consideration shall 16 be given to any written policy adopted and implemented by the seller to 17 effectuate the provisions of this section. Use of any method of an electronic transaction scan shall not excuse any person operating a place of 18 business wherein video games are sold or rented, or the agent or employ-19 20 ee of such person, from the exercise of due diligence. Notwithstanding 21 the provisions of this subdivision, any such affirmative defense shall 22 not be applicable in any civil or criminal proceeding, or in any other 23 forum.

- 5. For the purposes of this section "rating" means the standardized designation commonly used to inform parents about video games regarding listening and viewing by their children.
- 27 § 2. Severability. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision or 28 part of this act, or the application thereof to any person or circum-29 stance, shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unconstitutional, such judgment shall not affect, impair or 30 31 invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation 32 to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision or part of this act, or 33 in its application to the person or circumstance, directly involved in 34 the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered.
- 35 § 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after 36 it shall have become a law.
