AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to prohibiting the imposition of a surcharge by a seller in a sales transaction on a holder who uses a debit card

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 518 of the general business law, as added by chap-
2 ter 160 of the laws of 1984, is amended to read as follows:

3 § 518. [~~Credit~~] Payment card surcharge prohibited. 1. No seller in 4 any sales transaction may impose a surcharge on a holder who elects to 5 use a credit card or debit card in lieu of payment by cash, check, or 6 similar means. For purposes of this section, "debit card" includes a 7 prepaid card or other means of access to prepaid funds that may be used 8 to initiate electronic funds transfers and may be used without unique 9 identifying information such as a personal identification number to 10 initiate access to prepaid funds.

11 2. Nothing in this section shall prohibit any seller from:

12 a. offering discounts to a buyer to induce the buyer to pay by cash,
13 check, debit card or similar means rather than by credit card or debit 14 card, if such discounts are offered to all prospective buyers and 15 disclosed clearly and conspicuously; or

16 b. imposing a surcharge on a holder who, in connection with a credit
17 card or debit card transaction, receives cash back beyond the purchase
18 amount of the sales transaction, but such surcharge may only be applied
19 if disclosed clearly and conspicuously to the holder prior to the

1 completion of the transaction and only applied to the amount of cash
2 back provided by the seller.

3 3. No person may prohibit a seller from:

4 a. offering discounts to a buyer to induce payment by cash, check, 5 debit card or similar means rather than by credit card or debit card if 6 such discounts are consistent with the requirements of this section; or

7 b. imposing a surcharge on a holder who, in connection with a credit
8 card or debit card transaction, receives cash back beyond the purchase
9 amount of the sales transaction, but such surcharge may only be applied
10 if disclosed clearly and conspicuously to the holder prior to the 11 completion of the transaction and only applied to the amount of cash
12 back provided by the seller.

13 4. An electronic payment system may not, directly or through any 14 agent, processor or member of such system, impose any requirement, 15 condition, penalty or fine in a contract with a seller relating to the 16 display, at the point of sale, of pricing for goods or services offered 17 by seller, including a display relating to a discount to induce payment 18 by cash, check or similar means. This prohibition shall not apply with 19 respect to the display of pricing for goods or services in advertise-20 ments.

21 5. Any seller who violates the provisions of this section shall be 22 guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed five hundred 23 dollars or a term of imprisonment up to one year, or both.

24 6. If an electronic payment system imposes a fine on an acquirer that 25 results in the payment by a seller that violates any provision of this 26 section, the electronic payment system shall be liable to the seller for 27 the amount of any such fine paid by the seller, and, in addition,
28 subject to a civil penalty up to twice the amount of such fine.

29 § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after 30 it shall have become a law.
