AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to establishing the "caregiver's assistance act"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "caregiver's assistance act".

§ 2. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection (jjj) to read as follows:

(jjj) Elder care credit. (1) A taxpayer shall be allowed a credit 5 against the tax imposed by this article for qualified care expenses paid 7 by the taxpayer for the care of a qualifying senior family member. The 8 amount of the credit shall equal the lesser of twenty percent of the qualified care expenses paid by the taxpayer during the taxable year or 9 10 five hundred fifty-five dollars, whichever is less. If the credit or 11 credits provided pursuant to this section shall exceed the taxpayer's 12 tax for such taxable year, the excess shall be treated as an overpayment 13 of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of 14 section six hundred eighty-six of this article, provided, however, that no interest shall be paid thereon. No credit shall be granted under 15 this subsection if (i) the taxpayer's New York adjusted gross income is 16 17 greater than forty-five thousand dollars for a single taxpayer or sixty 18 thousand dollars for married taxpayers, or (ii) if the taxpayer has 19 claimed the credit authorized in subsection (c) of this section for 20 qualified care expenses paid for the care of a qualifying senior family 21 member.

22 (2) As used in this subsection:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
