29 Be informed in writing in plain language with up-to-date information 30 about:

- (i) the system of care and services for persons with developmental disabilities, including but not limited to managed care;
- (ii) the laws, rules, and regulations applicable to the rights of 33 family members and other personal representatives to participate in 34 decisions about the individual's life and to access information, 35 records, reports, care plans, etc.; and 36
- (iii) the procedures to challenge any decision affecting the individ-37 38 ual.

Nothing in this bill of rights and privileges shall limit any other right or privilege under law. If any residential facility or non-residential service provider fails to afford these rights and privileges, assistance may be sought from the facility or provider, or the office.

(d) A qualified personal representative may, in accordance with law and appropriate due process, not exercise a right or privilege described in this section if the subject individual receiving services, who is competent to do so, specifically affirms, in a reasonably contemporaneous manner, that such identified qualified personal representative shall not be afforded such specific right or privilege. Such determination by the subject individual shall be described and recorded in writing in the case file by appropriate staff of the facility or service provider and a statement of reasons for such denial shall be provided to the qualified personal representative.

(e) The statement of rights and privileges set forth in this section 54 is intended to be a guide to the rights and privileges of qualified personal representatives of individuals with developmental disabilities receiving residential and non-residential services.

A. 5482

(f) Nothing in this section shall be read to limit any other rights or privileges that qualified personal representatives may have or limit any action or relief otherwise permitted by law. Nothing in this subdivision shall alter or affect any right of appeal, formal or otherwise, such personal representative may have concerning the denial of any such right.

- 7 (g) Each covered provider shall conspicuously post a copy of the bill 8 of rights and privileges in a public place at each of the covered 9 provider's facilities.
 - (h) The commissioner shall:

- 11 (1) Post a copy of the bill of rights and privileges on the office's 12 website;
- (2) Make copies of the bill of rights and privileges in English, and the top six languages other than English spoken in the state (according to the latest available data from the U.S. bureau of census) available to the public and every provider;
- 17 (3) Establish a public education program designed to disseminate information regarding implementation of this section;
- 19 (4) Include specific information detailing the efforts of the commis-20 sioner to effectuate this section in the statewide comprehensive plan 21 required pursuant to section 5.07 of this chapter;
- 22 (5) Adopt all rules and regulations necessary to effectuate this 23 section.
- § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
