Introduced by M. of A. SKOUFIS -- read once and referred to the Committee on Consumer Affairs and Protection

AN ACT to amend the general business law and the executive law, in relation to requiring certain non-licensed professionals to disclose information regarding risks

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 391-u to read as follows:

§ 391-u. Self-help practitioners; requirements. 1. Definitions:

(a) "Self-help practitioner" means a non-licensed professional, his or her agent or employee, or a non-licensed company who is offering paid help to a client through financial, spiritual or educational guidance for the sake of improving personal awareness, identifying and developing personal talent and potential, enhancing the quality of life of a person and/or contributing to the realization of personal aspirations.

(b) "Large print format" shall mean a printed font size of sixteen points or larger.

(c) "Licensed professional" means a professional who can deal with any risk associated with exercises related to a self-help service or session.

2. Every self-help practitioner that offers services to clients shall:

(a) at the time of each initial contract for services, provide the client with a copy of the contract in which a disclosure of risk is displayed in large print format. Such disclosure of risk shall clearly explain, in plain language, that what the risks are in contracting with such self-help practitioner; and

(b) produce a comprehensive risk management plan to ensure that steps will be taken at each service or session to provide protection for clients in the event that there is a potential risk of physical or emotional harm. Every self-help practitioner shall be responsible for

1 ensuring that licensed professionals, including but not limited to,
2 medical professionals, social workers and psychologists, are made avail-
3 able to clients at each session or service when there is a possibility
4 of physical or emotional risk.

5 3. A violation by any self-help practitioner of subdivision two of 6 this section, if such violation constitutes the first such offense by 7 such self-help practitioner, is punishable by a civil penalty not to 8 exceed two hundred fifty dollars. A second offense and any offense
9 committed thereafter is punishable by a civil penalty not to exceed five 10 hundred dollars.

11 § 2. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 109-a to 12 read as follows:

13 § 109-a. Registration of self-help practitioners. 1. For purposes of 14 this section, "self-help practitioner" shall mean a non-licensed profes-
15 sional, his or her agent or employee, or a non-licensed company who is 16 offering paid help to a client through financial, spiritual or educa-
17 tional guidance for the sake of improving personal awareness, identify-
18 ing and developing personal talent and potential, enhancing the quality
19 of life of a person and/or contributing to the realization of personal 20 aspirations.

21 2. The secretary of state shall promulgate rules and regulations
22 prescribing a registration form to be used by any self-help practitioner
23 who provides self-help services to clients.

24 3. Such registration form shall identify:

25 (a) the name, address, and telephone number of the self-help practi-
26 tioner; and

27 (b) a brief description of the nature of the self-help services
28 provided to each identified client.

29 4. Such registration shall be filed with the department of state and 30 shall cover a twelve month reporting period.

31 5. The secretary of state shall post the completed forms on the 32 department of state's website within thirty days of the close of each
33 reporting period.

34 6. The department of state may impose a civil penalty of up to seven 35 hundred fifty dollars upon any self-help practitioner who fails to file 36 a registration required by this section provided, however, that the 37 secretary of state shall provide such self-help practitioner a reason-
38 able opportunity to cure such a failure.

39 7. The department of state shall adopt, amend and rescind rules and 40 regulations defining the degree and extent of self-help services neces-
41 sary to require the reporting pursuant to this section.

42 § 3. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 43 have become a law.
