

STATE OF NEW YORK

6334

2017-2018 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

March 2, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. FINCH, BUTLER, CROUCH, ERRIGO, KOLB -- read once and referred to the Committee on Agriculture

AN ACT to amend the agriculture and markets law and the cooperative corporations law, in relation to establishing a dairy farmers' bill of rights

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The agriculture and markets law is amended by adding two 2 new sections 256-c and 256-d to read as follows:

3 § 256-c. Dairy farmers' bill of rights; declaration of policy. The 4 expressed intent of the agriculture and markets law and the policy of 5 this state is to foster and encourage the marketing of milk through 6 producer owned and controlled cooperatives. The orderly marketing of 7 milk for the benefit of farmers, milk dealers, and consumers is enhanced
8 when milk producers are free to make an independent uncoerced decision
9 regarding their participation in cooperative associations, as authorized
10 by state and federal law. Interference in the exercise of this free 11 right of choice is contrary to the public interest. For this reason, the 12 legislature finds that the public interest requires that there be a 13 specification of prohibited unfair trade practices which have the 14 purpose of intentionally impairing a producer's freedom to bargain
15 collectively with other producers in the marketing of the producer's 16 product.

17 For purposes of this section, (i) an "association of producers" or 18 "cooperative" shall mean any corporation or association of persons
19 engaged in the production of milk and operating for the mutual benefit
20 of its members in conformity with the requirement of the Capper-Volstead 21 act, and any federation of such corporations or associations, or of such 22 corporations, associations, and individual producers, and (ii) an asso-
23 ciation of producers shall not be considered to be a milk dealer.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD00771-01-7

1 § 256-d. Unfair practices by dealers. 1. It shall be unlawful for any 2 milk dealer or any of its officers, managers, agents, or employees to 3 intentionally impair a producer's freedom to join or to participate in 4 an association of producers or cooperative by:

5 (a) coercing, through threat of injury to person or property, or to 6 health, safety, business or financial condition, reputation or personal 7 relationships any producer in the exercise of his or her right to join 8 and belong to an association of producers or cooperative;

9 (b) soliciting or requesting any producer to breach a marketing agree-
10 ment or other contractual agreement between the producer and an associ-
11 ation of producers or cooperative;

12 (c) making a loan or gift of money, or of anything else of value, or 13 offering to make such a loan or gift for the specific purpose of induc-
14 ing a producer to refuse or cease to belong to an association of produc-
15 ers or cooperative;

16 (d) refusing to deal with any producer, because of the exercise of the 17 producer's right to join and belong to an association of producers or 18 cooperative;

19 (e) making false reports about the finances or management of an asso-20 ciation of producers or other milk dealers in reckless disregard of the 21 truth or knowing that such statements are untrue and that there is a
22 reasonable likelihood that such statements will impair a producer's 23 right to make an independent decision to belong to an association of 24 producers or cooperative; and

25 (f) conspiring, combining, agreeing, or arranging with any other 26 person to do, or aid and abet the doing of, any act made unlawful by 27 this section.

28 2. For purposes of this section: (a) an "association of producers" or 29 "cooperative" shall mean any corporation or association of persons
30 engaged in the production of milk and operating for the mutual benefit
31 of its members in conformity with the requirements of the Capper-Vol-32 stead act, and any federation of such corporations or associations, or 33 of such corporations, associations, and individual producers, and (b) an 34 association of producers shall not be considered to be a milk dealer.

35 3. Nothing in this section is intended to prevent bargaining between 36 milk dealers and producers or associations of producers with respect to 37 price or any other terms of purchase or handling of milk in a course of 38 dealing not proscribed by this section, nor to prevent producers from 39 requiring that payment be made through an association of producers or 40 cooperative.

41 4. Whenever the commissioner has reason to believe a violation of this 42 section has occurred, the commissioner may commence such judicial 43 action, or institute such investigation or proceeding and issue an order 44 based thereon, as is provided by this article or article three of this 45 chapter; provided, however, that the commissioner shall take no action
46 against a milk dealer under section two hundred fifty-eight-c of this 47 article for conduct which is a violation of this section unless such 48 dealer is at the time of such conduct subject to a final administrative 49 or judicial order which prohibits such conduct by such dealer; and 50 provided further that nothing contained in this section shall impair or 51 delay the private right of action created by section seventy-four of the 52 cooperative corporations law for any violation of that section.

53 § 2. Section 74 of the cooperative corporations law is amended to read 54 as follows:

55 § 74. Liability for damages for encouraging or permitting delivery of 56 products in violation of marketing agreements. Any person, firm or

1 corporation who solicits or persuades or aids or abets any member of any 2 cooperative corporation incorporated under or subject to this chapter to 3 breach his marketing contract with the corporation by accepting or 4 receiving such member's products for sale, marketing, manufacturing or 5 processing thereof contrary to the terms of any marketing agreement of 6 which said person or any officer [~~or~~], manager, agent or employee of the 7 said corporation has knowledge or notice, shall be liable in the penal 8 sum of [~~one hundred~~] not more than ten thousand dollars for each 9 contract, to the cooperative corporation aggrieved in a civil suit for 10 damages; and such cooperative corporation shall be entitled to an 11 injunction against such person, firm or corporation to prevent further 12 breaches.

13 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.