AN ACT to amend the alcoholic beverage control law, in relation to expanding the amount of barrels that a restaurant brewer may sell at retail

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivisions 5, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18 and 19 of 2 section 64-c of the alcoholic beverage control law, subdivision 5 as
3 amended by chapter 366 of the laws of 2012, subdivisions 12, 13, 14, 15
4 and 16 as added by chapter 538 of the laws of 1997, subdivision 17 as 5 added by chapter 562 of the laws of 2006, subdivision 18 as added by 6 chapter 181 of the laws of 2008 and subdivision 19 as added by chapter
7 318 of the laws of 2016, are amended to read as follows:

8 5. Such restaurant-brewer license shall in form and in substance be a 9 license to the person specifically licensed to operate a restaurant and 10 sell liquor at retail to be consumed on the premises specifically 11 licensed. Such license shall also be deemed to include a license to:

12 (a) sell wine and beer at retail to be consumed under the same terms
13 and conditions, without the payment of any additional fee; and

14 (b) sell beer brewed on the premises to other retail licensees, where 15 such license is held by the same person holding the restaurant-brewer
16 license, or to commonly owned affiliate licenses, provided that such 17 beer is sold through a New York state licensed beer wholesaler.

18 (c) sell, in the aggregate, no more than two thousand barrels of beer
19 brewed on the premises to other retail licensees, where such other retail licensees are not held by the same person holding the restaurant-brewer licenses or are not commonly owned affiliate licenses, provided that such beer is sold through a New York state licensed beer wholesaler;

(d) sell, in the aggregate, no more than two thousand barrels of beer brewed on the licensed premises at retail to a person for consumption in their home and at retail in bulk by the keg, cask or barrel for consumption and not for resale.

~~[12. The liquor authority may in its discretion and upon such terms and conditions as it may prescribe, issue to a licensed restaurant brewer upon his application therefor a supplemental license authorizing the restaurant brewer to sell beer brewed on the licensed premises at retail to a person for consumption in his home, at retail in bulk by the keg, cask or barrel for consumption and not for resale at a clambake, barbecue, picnic, outing or other similar outdoor gathering at which more than fifty persons are assembled and at wholesale. Such additional license shall permit the sale of up to two hundred fifty barrels of beer per year. No person, who holds multiple licenses under this section and applies for and receives multiple supplemental licenses, may sell, under those supplemental licenses, in the aggregate more than one thousand barrels of beer per year.~~

~~13. For the exercise of the privilege granted by such supplemental license issued under subdivision twelve of this section there is assessed a fee to be paid by the licensee in the sum of eleven hundred twenty-five dollars per three year period plus a one hundred dollar filing fee and which fee shall be in addition to the fee provided for in this section for a restaurant brewer license.~~

~~14. An application for a supplemental license under subdivision thirteen of this section shall be in such form and shall contain such information as shall be required by the liquor authority and shall be accompanied by a check or draft in the amount required by subdivision thirteen of this section.~~

~~15.]~~ 12. The fee for an original and a renewal restaurant-brewer license shall be fifty-eight hundred fifty dollars in the counties of New York, Kings, Bronx and Queens; forty-three hundred fifty dollars in the county of Richmond and in cities having a population of more than one hundred thousand and less than one million; thirty-six hundred dollars in cities having a population of more than fifty thousand and less than one hundred thousand; and the sum of twenty-eight hundred fifty dollars elsewhere. Said license shall run for a period of three years. In addition to the license fees provided for in this subdivision, there shall be paid to the authority with each initial application a filing fee of two hundred dollars and with each renewal application a filing fee of one hundred dollars.

~~[16. A restaurant brewer license issued under this section and a supplemental license issued under this section shall run concurrently.~~

~~17.]~~ 13. (a) A licensee or his or her employee may serve small samples of beer or malt beverages he or she produces at their licensed establishments.

(b) Each serving at such tasting shall be served only by the brewer or his or her employee and shall be limited to three ounces or less of a brand of beer or malt beverage produced by the brewer and no consumer of legal age shall be provided or given more than two servings of such brands offered for tasting.

(c) The authority is authorized and directed to promulgate such rules and regulations, as it deems necessary or appropriate to implement the

1 provisions of this subdivision to protect the health, safety and welfare
2 of the people of this state.
