AN ACT to amend the insurance law, in relation to coverage for children for services related to the diagnosis and treatment of mental, nervous or emotional disorders or ailments

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subsection (i) of section 3216 of the insurance law is amended by adding a new paragraph 34 to read as follows:

(34) (A) Every policy that provides medical, major medical or similar comprehensive-type coverage, shall provide coverage for children for services related to the diagnosis and treatment of mental, nervous or emotional disorders or ailments, including but not limited to biologically based mental illnesses as defined by subparagraph (B) of paragraph five of subsection (l) of section three thousand two hundred twenty-one of this article and children with serious emotional disturbances as defined by subparagraph (C) of paragraph five of subsection (l) of section three thousand two hundred twenty-one of this article, in a psychiatric center under the jurisdiction of the office of mental health or other psychiatric in-patient facility in the department, and a psychiatric in-patient facility maintained by a political subdivision of the state for the care or treatment of the mentally ill. Coverage required under this paragraph must be at least equal to coverage provided in such policy for the diagnosis and treatment of mental, nervous or emotional disorders or ailments with no additional cost sharing.

(B) For the purposes of this paragraph, the term "children" shall mean any person under the age of eighteen years.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

§ 2. Subsection (l) of section 3221 of the insurance law is amended by adding a new paragraph 5-a to read as follows:

(5-a) (A) Every policy that provides medical, major medical or similar comprehensive-type coverage, shall provide coverage for children for services related to the diagnosis and treatment of mental, nervous or emotional disorders or ailments, including but not limited to biologically based mental illnesses as defined by subparagraph (B) of paragraph five of this subsection and children with serious emotional disturbances as defined by subparagraph (C) of paragraph five of this subsection, in a psychiatric center under the jurisdiction of the office of mental health or other psychiatric in-patient facility in the department, and a psychiatric in-patient facility maintained by a political subdivision of the state for the care or treatment of the mentally ill. Coverage required under this paragraph must be at least equal to coverage provided in such policy for the diagnosis and treatment of mental, nervous or emotional disorders or ailments with no additional cost sharing.

(B) For the purposes of this paragraph, the term "children" shall mean any person under the age of eighteen years.

§ 3. Section 4303 of the insurance law is amended by adding a new subsection (g-1) to read as follows:

(g-1) (1) Every contract that provides medical, major medical or similar comprehensive-type coverage, shall provide coverage for children for services related to the diagnosis and treatment of mental, nervous or emotional disorders or ailments, including but not limited to biologically based mental illnesses as defined by subparagraph (B) of paragraph two of subsection (g) of this section and children with serious emotional disturbances as defined by paragraph three of subsection (g) of this section, in a psychiatric center under the jurisdiction of the office of mental health or other psychiatric in-patient facility in the department, and a psychiatric in-patient facility maintained by a political subdivision of the state for the care or treatment of the mentally ill. Coverage required under this paragraph must be at least equal to coverage provided in such policy for the diagnosis and treatment of mental, nervous or emotional disorders or ailments with no additional cost sharing.

(2) For the purposes of this subsection, the term "children" shall mean any person under the age of eighteen years.

§ 4. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to any policy issued, delivered, renewed, and/or modified on or after the effective date of this act.
