AN ACT to amend the education law and the executive law, in relation to prohibiting college learning assessment exams in colleges in the state

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 208-b
2 to read as follows:

3 § 208-b. Collegiate learning assessment exams prohibited. 1. The 4 board of regents is prohibited from instituting or administering a
5 collegiate learning assessment exam at any college or university in the 6 state for purposes other than internal assessment by that college or 7 university.

8 2. Any college or university chartered by the regents or incorporated
9 by special act of the legislature that maintains a campus in New York is 10 prohibited from using collegiate learning assessment exams for any 11 purpose except assessment of institutional effectiveness, course read-
12 iness of an individual student, or internal assessment.

13 3. Individual collegiate learning assessment exam results shall be 14 considered private student information and may not be released by any 15 college or university without the express written permission of the 16 student test taker.

17 4. No part of this section shall prohibit or curtail the use of stand-
18 ardized tests as defined in section three hundred forty of this chapter.

19 5. For purposes of this section, the following terms shall have the 20 following meanings:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD07993-02-8

1 (a) "collegiate learning assessment" means a standardized test includ-
2 ing, but not limited to proprietary tests such as the collegiate learn-
3 ing assessment and the CLA+.

4 (b) "college" shall have the same meaning as such term is defined in 5 subdivision two of section two of this chapter.

6 § 2. Section 296 of the executive law is amended by adding a new 7 subdivision 1-b to read as follows:

8 1-b. It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for an employer,
9 labor organization, employment agency or any joint labor-management
10 committee controlling apprentice training program:

11 (a) to use the result of a collegiate learning assessment, as defined
12 in section two hundred eight-b of the education law, in the hiring or 13 retaining of any person for employment purposes; or

14 (b) to compel any person to provide them with the results of a colle-
15 giate learning assessment, as defined in section two hundred eight-b of 16 the education law, for employment purposes.

17 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
