AN ACT to amend the elder law, in relation to establishing a telephone reassurance program for senior citizens

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The elder law is amended by adding a new section 224 to 2 read as follows:

- § 224. Telephone reassurance program. 1. The office is hereby author-4 ized and directed to establish and administer a telephone reassurance 5 program. Such program shall provide a system for senior citizens residing in this state to receive automated telephone calls in a language of their choosing, at regular intervals at their place of residence. Available intervals shall include daily, weekly or monthly options, of which each recipient may adjust as necessary. Upon the failure of such senior citizen to answer such automated call, a follow-up call shall be made 10 11 within twenty-four hours. Upon the failure to answer an additional time, local law enforcement shall be dispatched to such residence in order to determine the welfare of such senior citizen. Such program shall provide 14 that participation by a senior citizen in such program is voluntary. For 15 purposes of this section, the term "senior citizen" shall mean a person sixty-five years of age or older.
 - 2. In establishing such program, the office shall consult and cooperate with local law enforcement agencies in order to effect an efficient system for sending and receiving telephone calls, and for the dispatching of law enforcement.
- 3. The office is hereby authorized and directed to promulgate rules 22 and regulations necessary for the implementation of this section.
- 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 23 24 have become a law, provided, however, that effective immediately, the 25 addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed on or before such date.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
