Any conviction set aside pursuant to law is not a conviction for purposes of this article; or (b) has been determined by the court to be a domestic abuse offender by a court pursuant to section 530.15 or paragraph (c) of subdivision one of section 530.12 of the criminal procedure law.

2. "Domestic abuse offense" means:

5 includes all of the essential elements of any such crime provided for in 6 paragraph (a) of this subdivision or (ii) a felony in any other juris-7 diction for which the offender is required to register as a domestic 8 abuse offender in the jurisdiction in which the conviction occurred, 9 provided that the elements of such crime of conviction are substantially 10 the same as those which are a part of such offense as of the date on 11 which this section takes effect.

20 persons have been married or have lived together at any time;

21 (e) persons who are not related by consanguinity or affinity and who 22 are or have been in an intimate relationship regardless of whether such 23 persons have lived together at any time. Factors the court may consider 24 in determining whether a relationship is an "intimate relationship" 25 include but are not limited to: the nature or type of relationship, 26 regardless of whether the relationship is sexual in nature; the frequen-27 cy of interaction between the persons; and the duration of the relation-

35 in which the domestic abuse offender expects to reside upon his or her 36 discharge, probation, parole, release to post-release supervision or 37 upon any form of state or local conditional release; or (ii) if there be 38 no chief law enforcement officer in such village, town or city, the 39 chief law enforcement officer of the county in which the offender 40 expects to reside; or (iii) if there be no chief enforcement officer in 41 such village, town, city or county, the division of state police; and

38 such files available when requested pursuant to the provisions of this 39 article.

40 (b) The division shall require that no information included in the 41 registry shall be made available except in the furtherance of the 46 be written in clear and concise language and shall advise the domestic 47 abuse offender of his or her duties and obligations under this article.

48 4. The division shall mail a nonforwardable verification form to the 11 hereby authorized to deposit such fees into the general fund.

12 § 169-c. Domestic abuse offender; relocation; notification. 1. In the 13 case of any domestic abuse offender, it shall be the duty of the depart-14 ment or local correctional facility at least ten calendar days prior to 15 the release or discharge of any domestic abuse offender from a correc-16 tional facility or local correctional facility to notify the division of 17 the contemplated release or discharge of such domestic abuse offender, 18 informing the division in writing on a form provided by the division 19 indicating the address at which he or she proposes to reside and the 20 name and address of any institution of higher education at which he or 21 she expects to be enrolled, attending or employed, whether for compen-22 sation or not, and whether he or she resides in or will reside in a 23 facility owned or operated by such institution. If such domestic abuse 24 offender changes his or her place of residence while on parole, such 25 notification of the change of residence shall be sent by the domestic 26 abuse offender's parole officer within forty-eight hours to the division 27 on a form provided by the division. If such domestic abuse offender 28 changes the status of his or her enrollment, attendance, employment or 30 notification of the change of status shall be sent by the domestic abuse 31 offender's parole officer within forty-eight hours to the division on a 32 form provided by the division.

33 2. In the case of any domestic abuse offender on probation, it shall 34 be the duty of the domestic abuse offender's probation officer to notify 35 the division within forty-eight hours of the new place of residence on a 36 form provided by the division. If such domestic abuse offender changes 37 the status of his or her enrollment, attendance, employment or residence

39 cation of the change of status shall be sent by the domestic abuse 40 offender's probation officer within forty-eight hours to the division on 41 a form provided by the division.

42 3. In the case in which any domestic abuse offender escapes from a 43 state or local correctional facility, the designated official of the 44 facility where the domestic abuse offender was confined shall notify 45 within twenty-four hours the law enforcement agency having had jurisdic-

52 of such domestic abuse offender's fingerprints and photograph and a 53 summary of his or her criminal record.

54 4. The division shall provide general information, in registration 55 materials and annual correspondence, to registrants concerning notifica-

3 institution in another state or United States possession. Such informa-4 tion shall include addresses and telephone numbers for relevant agencies 5 from which additional information may be obtained.

6 § 169-d. Duties of the court. 1. Upon conviction of any of the 7 offenses set forth in subdivision two of section one hundred 8 sixty-nine-a of this article the court shall certify that the person is 9 a domestic abuse offender and shall include the certification in the 10 judgment of conviction. The court shall also advise the domestic abuse 11 offender of his or her duties under this article. Failure to include the 12 certification in the judgment of conviction shall not relieve a domestic 13 abuse offender of the obligations imposed by this article.

14 2. Any domestic abuse offender who has been convicted of a violent 15 felony or two or more misdemeanors against a person who is a member of 16 such offender's family or household as defined in section 530.12 of the 17 criminal procedure law, who is released on probation or discharged upon 18 payment of a fine, conditional discharge or unconditional discharge 19 shall, prior to such release or discharge, be informed of his or her 20 duty to register under this article by the court in which he or she was 21 convicted. At the time sentence is imposed, such domestic abuse offender 22 shall register with the division on a form prepared by the division. The 23 court shall require the domestic abuse offender to read and sign such 24 form and to complete the registration portion of such form. The court 25 shall on such form obtain the address where the domestic abuse offender 26 expects to reside upon his or her release, and the name and address of 27 any institution of higher education he or she expects to be employed by,

29 whether he or she expects to reside in a facility owned or operated by 30 such an institution, and shall report such information to the division.
31 The court shall give one copy of the form to the domestic abuse offender 32 and shall send two copies to the division which shall forward the infor-33 mation to the law enforcement agencies having jurisdiction. Where the 34 court orders a domestic abuse offender released on probation, such order 35 must include a provision requiring that he or she comply with the 36 requirements of this article. Where such domestic abuse offender 37 violates such provision, probation may be immediately revoked in the 38 manner provided by article four hundred ten of the criminal procedure 39 law.

40 3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, it 41 shall be in the courts discretion to require an offender to register 42 pursuant to this article. In determining whether an offender should be 43 on the registry, a judge shall consider, among other things, whether the 44 offender is a victim who was defending himself or herself and the 45 offender's history of and propensity for violence. In addition, a judge 46 may require a threat assessment of future risk, utilizing methods such 47 as a Domestic Violence MOSAIC, a Danger Assessment, a Domestic Violence 48 Screening Instrument or a Kingston Screening Instrument for Domestic 49 Violence or other threat assessment as the court may deem appropriate.

50 4. The court shall provide reasonable opportunity to a victim to 51 object to an offender's inclusion in the registry and shall take such 52 information into account while determining the offender's inclusion 53 pursuant to subdivision three of this section.

54 § 169-e. Discharge of domestic abuse offender from correctional facil-

4 or she was confined. The facility shall require the domestic abuse 5 offender to read and sign such form as may be required by the division 6 stating the duty to register and the procedure for registration has been 7 explained to him or her and to complete the registration portion of such 8 form. The facility shall obtain on such form the address where the 9 domestic abuse offender expects to reside upon his or her discharge, 10 parole or release and the name and address of any institution of higher 11 education he or she expects to be employed by, enrolled in, attending or 12 employed, whether for compensation or not, and whether he or she expects 13 to reside in a facility owned or operated by such an institution, and 14 shall report such information to the division. The facility shall give 15 one copy of the form to the domestic abuse offender, retain one copy and 16 shall send one copy to the division which shall provide the information 17 to the law enforcement agencies having jurisdiction. The facility shall 18 give the domestic abuse offender a form prepared by the division, to 19 register with the division at least fifteen calendar days prior to 20 release and such form shall be completed, signed by the domestic abuse 21 offender and sent to the division by the facility at least ten days 22 prior to the domestic abuse offender's release or discharge.

23 2. The division shall also immediately transmit the conviction data 24 and fingerprints to the Federal Bureau of Investigation if not already 25 obtained.

26 § 169-f. Duty to register and to verify. 1. Any domestic abuse offen-27 der shall (a) at least ten calendar days prior to discharge, parole, 28 release to post-release supervision or release from any state or local 29 correctional facility where he or she was confined, or (b) if released 30 on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine, conditional discharge 31 or unconditional discharge, at the time sentence is imposed, register 32 with the division on a form prepared by the division.

33 2. Any domestic abuse offender required to register under this article 34 shall on or before each anniversary of the domestic abuse offender's 35 initial registration date during the period in which he or she is 36 required to register verify that he or she still resides at the address 37 last reported to the division.

38 3. Any domestic abuse offender shall register with the division no 39 later than ten calendar days after any change of address or any change 40 of his or her status of enrollment, attendance, employment or residence 41 at any institution of higher education. A fee of ten dollars, as author-42 ized by subdivision eight of section one hundred sixty-nine-b of this 43 article, shall be submitted by the domestic abuse offender each time 44 such domestic abuse offender registers any change of address or any 45 change of his or her status of enrollment, attendance, employment or 46 residence at any institution of higher education. Any failure or omis-47 sion to submit the required fee shall not affect the acceptance by the 48 division of the change of address or change of status.

49 4. The duty to register under the provisions of this article shall not 50 be applicable to any domestic abuse offender whose conviction was 51 reversed upon appeal or who was pardoned by the governor.

52 5. Any nonresident worker or nonresident student, as defined in subdi-53 visions eight and nine of section one hundred sixty-nine-a of this arti-54 cle, shall register his or her current address and the address of his or 55 her place of employment or educational institution attended with the 56 division within ten calendar days after such nonresident worker or

1 nonresident student commences employment or attendance at an educational 2 institution in the state. Any nonresident worker or nonresident student 3 shall notify the division of any change of residence, employment or 4 educational institution address no later than ten days after such 5 change. The division shall notify the law enforcement agency where the 6 nonresident worker is employed or the educational institution is located 7 that a nonresident worker or nonresident student is present in that 8 agency's jurisdiction.

9 § 169-g. Prior convictions; duty to inform and register. 1. Every 10 domestic abuse offender who on the effective date of this article is 11 then on parole or probation for an offense provided for in subdivision 12 two of section one hundred sixty-nine-a of this article shall within 13 thirty calendar days of such effective date register with his or her 14 parole or probation officer. Any domestic abuse offender who fails or 15 refuses to so comply shall be subject to the same penalties as otherwise 16 provided for in this article which would be imposed upon a domestic 17 abuse offender who fails or refuses to so comply with the provisions of 18 this article on or after such effective date.

19 2. It shall be the duty of the parole or probation officer to inform 20 and register such domestic abuse offender according to the requirements 21 imposed by this article. A parole or probation officer shall give one 22 copy of the form to the domestic abuse offender and shall, within three 23 calendar days, send two copies electronically or otherwise to the divi-24 sion which shall forward one copy electronically or otherwise to the law 25 enforcement agency having jurisdiction where the domestic abuse offender 26 resides upon his or her parole, probation, or upon any form of state or 27 local conditional release.

28 § 169-h. Duration of registration and verification. The duration of 29 registration and verification for a domestic abuse offender shall be for 30 a period of five to ten years from the initial date of registration, as 31 determined by the court, or while a permanent order of protection exists 32 against the domestic abuse offender whichever is longer.

33 § 169-i. Registration and verification requirements. Registration and 34 verification as required by this article shall consist of a statement in 35 writing signed by the domestic abuse offender giving the information 36 that is required by the division and the division shall enter the infor-37 mation into an appropriate electronic data base or file.

38 § 169-j. Notification of local law enforcement agencies of change of 39 address. 1. Upon receipt of a change of address by a domestic abuse 40 offender required to register under this article, the division shall 41 notify the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction of the new 42 place of residence and the local law enforcement agency where the domes-43 tic abuse offender last resided of the new place of residence.

44 2. The division shall, if the domestic abuse offender changes resi-
45 dence to another state, notify the appropriate agency within that state 46 of the new place of residence.

47 3. Upon receipt of a change in the status of the enrollment, attend-48 ance, employment or residence at an institution of higher education by a 49 domestic abuse offender required to register under this article, the 50 division shall notify each law enforcement agency having jurisdiction 51 which is affected by such change.

52 § 169-k. Registration for change of address from another state. 1. A 53 domestic abuse offender who has been convicted of an offense which 54 requires registration under paragraph (b) of subdivision two of section 55 one hundred sixty-nine-a of this article shall notify the division of

1 the new address no later than ten calendar days after such domestic 2 abuse offender establishes residence in this state.

3 2. The division shall undertake an information campaign designed to 4 provide information to officials and appropriate individuals in other 5 states and United States possessions concerning the notification proce-
6 dures required by this article. Such information campaign shall be ongo-7 ing, and shall include, but not be limited to, letters, notice forms and 8 similar materials providing relevant information about this article and 9 the specific procedures required to effect notification. Such materials 10 shall include an address and telephone number which such officials and 11 individuals in other states and United States possessions may use to 12 obtain additional information.

13 § 169-l. Petition for relief or modification. Any domestic abuse 14 offender who is required to register or verify pursuant to this article 15 and who has been registered for a minimum period of ten years may be 16 relieved of any further duty to register upon the granting of a petition 17 for relief by the sentencing court or by the court which made the deter-18 mination regarding duration of registration and level of notification.
19 The offender shall bear the burden of proving by clear and convincing 20 evidence that his or her risk of repeat offense and threat to public 21 safety is such that registration or verification is no longer necessary.
22 Such petition, if granted, shall not relieve the petitioner of the duty 23 to register pursuant to this article upon conviction of any offense 24 requiring registration in the future. Such a petition shall not be 25 considered more than once every two years. In the event that the domes-26 tic abuse offender's petition for relief is granted, the district attor-27 ney may appeal as of right from the order pursuant to the provisions of 28 articles fifty-five, fifty-six and fifty-seven of the civil practice law 29 and rules. Where counsel has been assigned to represent the domestic 30 abuse offender upon the ground that the domestic abuse offender is 31 financially unable to retain counsel, that assignment shall be continued 32 throughout the pendency of the appeal, and the person may appeal as a 33 poor person pursuant to article eighteen-B of the county law.

34 § 169-m. Special telephone number. 1. Pursuant to section one hundred 35 sixty-nine-b of this article, the division shall operate a telephone 36 number that members of the public may call free of charge and inquire 37 whether a named individual required to register pursuant to this article 38 is listed. The division shall ascertain whether a named person reason-39 ably appears to be a person so listed and provide the caller with the 40 relevant information. The division shall decide whether the named person 41 reasonably appears to be a person listed, based upon information from 42 the caller providing information that shall include (a) an exact street 43 address, including apartment number, driver's license number or birth 44 date, along with additional information that may include social security 45 number, hair color, eye color, height, weight, distinctive markings, 46 ethnicity; or (b) any combination of the above listed characteristics if 47 an exact birth date or address is not available. If three of the charac-48 teristics provided include ethnicity, hair color, and eye color, other 49 identifying characteristics shall be provided. Any information identify-50 ing the victim by name, birth date, address or relation to the person 51 listed by the division shall be excluded by the division.

52 2. When the telephone number is called, a preamble shall be played 53 which shall provide the following information:

- 54 (a) notice that the caller's telephone number will be recorded;
