AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to providing for the rights of students and responsibilities of schools participating in free or reduced-price meal programs

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1	Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 908 to
2	read as follows:
3	§ 908. Hunger free schools. 1. For purposes of this section, the
4	following terms shall have the following meanings:
5	(a) "meal application" shall mean an application for free or reduced-
б	price meals pursuant to the national school lunch program and school
7	breakfast program; and
8	(b) "school" shall mean any institution within the state that provides
9	primary or secondary education.
10	2. (a) A school shall provide:
11	(i) a free, printed meal application in every school enrollment pack-
12	et, or if the school chooses to use an electronic meal application,
13	provide in school enrollment packets an explanation of the electronic
14	meal application process and instructions for how parents or guardians
15	may request a paper application at no cost; and
16	(ii) meal applications and instructions in a language that parents and
17	guardians understand. If a parent or guardian cannot read or understand
18	a meal application, the school shall offer assistance in completing such
19	application.
20	(b) If a school becomes aware that a student who has not submitted a
21	meal application is eligible for free or reduced-price meals, the school

shall complete and file an application for the student under the author-1 2 ity granted by Title 7, Section 245.6(d) of the Code of Federal Regu-3 lations. (c) Paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subdivision do not apply to a 4 5 school that provides free meals to all students in a year in which the б school does not collect meal applications from students. 7 3. (a) Regardless of whether or not a student has money to pay for a 8 meal or owes money for earlier meals, a school: 9 (i) shall provide a United States department of agriculture reimbursa-10 ble meal to a student who requests one, unless the student's parent or guardian has specifically provided written permission to the school to 11 withhold a meal; and 12 13 (ii) shall not throw away a meal after it has been served because of 14 the student's inability to pay for the meal or because money is owed for 15 earlier meals. 16 (b) If a student owes money for five or more meals, a school shall: 17 (i) check the state list of students categorically eligible for free meals to determine if the student is categorically eligible; and 18 19 (ii) contact the student's parent and guardian with written and oral 20 communications, not including the application or instructions included in a school enrollment packet, to encourage meal application submission 21 and offer assistance in completing the application. 22 4. A school shall not: 23 (a) publicly identify, shame, stigmatize, or treat differently a 24 25 student who cannot pay for a meal or who owes a meal debt; 26 (b) require a student who cannot pay for a meal or who owes a meal 27 debt to do chores or other work to pay for meals; (c) deny any student from participating in afterschool programs or 28 29 other extracurricular activities because the student cannot pay for a meal or owes a meal debt; and 30 31 (d) take disciplinary action that directly results in denying or 32 delaying a student the same meal that is available to other students and substituting it with an alternate meal because a student cannot pay for 33 34 a meal or owes a meal debt. 35 5. A school shall direct communications about a student's meal debt to a parent or guardian and not the student. Nothing in this section 36 prohibits a school from sending a student home with a letter addressed 37 to a parent or guardian provided that it is done in a way that does not 38

39 stigmatize the student such as in an unmarked envelope.

40 6. A school shall not require a parent or guardian to pay fees or 41 costs from collection agencies hired to collect a meal debt.

42 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
