(b) "Provider of internet service" shall mean any person, business or organization qualified to do business in this state that provides individuals, corporations, or other entities with the ability to connect to the internet through equipment that is located in this state.

2. A provider of internet service shall keep confidential:
(a) all personal information concerning a subscriber, other than the electronic mail address of the subscriber, unless the subscriber gives permission, in writing or by electronic mail, to the provider of internet service to disclose the information; and
(b) the electronic mail address of a subscriber, if the subscriber requests, in writing or by electronic mail, to have the electronic mail address of the subscriber kept confidential. Upon receiving such a request from a subscriber, a provider of internet service shall keep confidential the electronic mail address of the subscriber, unless the subscriber gives permission, in writing or by electronic mail, to the provider of internet service to disclose the electronic mail address of the subscriber.

3. A provider of internet service shall provide notice of the requirements of subdivision two of this section to each of its subscribers. The notice must include, without limitation, a conspicuous statement that a subscriber may request, in writing or by electronic mail, to have the electronic mail address of the subscriber kept confidential.

4. A provider of internet service shall not add a supplemental charge or in any way penalize a subscriber either financially or in quality or speed of delivery for choosing not to allow for the sharing of personal information.

5. A provider of internet service who violates any provision of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to a fine of not less than five hundred dollars or more than one thousand dollars for each violation.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
