Introduced by M. of A. PRETLOW -- read once and referred to the Committee on Economic Development

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to requiring oil companies to clean up spillage occurring during a delivery

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 309 to read as follows:

§ 309. Oil delivery spillage. Any spillage occurring in the course of oil delivery shall be cleaned up by the oil delivery company within twenty-four hours. If the spill affects soil the clean up shall include replacing the affected soil with new soil. Violation of this section shall result in a fine of five hundred dollars for the first offense and one thousand dollars for each additional offense, not to exceed ten thousand dollars payable by the oil delivery company.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
