AN ACT to amend the insurance law, in relation to determination of overpayments to health care providers by extrapolation

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph 2 of subsection (b) of section 3224-b of the 2 insurance law, as amended by chapter 237 of the laws of 2009, is amended 3 to read as follows:

4 (2) A health plan shall provide a health care provider with the oppor-5 tunity to challenge an overpayment recovery, including the sharing of 6 claims information, and shall establish written policies and procedures
7 for health care providers to follow to challenge an overpayment recov-
8 ery. Such challenge shall set forth the specific grounds on which the 9 provider is challenging the overpayment recovery. In the event that the 10 process known as extrapolation will be used in determining whether 11 health care providers have received overpayments from a health care
12 plan, the health care plan shall comply with the following requirements:

13 (A) advise the health care provider with written notice that extrapo-
14 lation will be utilized;

15 (B) apply a valid statistical methodology that uses stratified random 16 sampling methods to assure a fair evaluation of the claims subject to 17 audit;

18 (C) advise the health care provider as to the type of methodology
19 used;

20 (D) provide the health care provider sixty business days to appeal the 21 audit findings; and

22 (E) in the event of an appeal of the audit findings, the health care 23 provider may seek a review of the findings by a mutually agreed upon 24 independent third party auditor. The cost of a third party review shall 25 be shared equally between the parties.

26 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
